THE CHIEFTAIN

Pays a High Tribute to Victoria.
He Confidently Predicts the Return of the Government to Power.

Two Enthusiastic Meetings Addressed: The Premier in Kingston, to Bring Back to the Paths of Rightness—When Defeated, the Opposition will be a Party of the Government.

From Our Own Correspondent. OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—The premier addressed two enthusiastic meetings to-day, one at Carleton Place, the other at Stittsville, Ontario. At the latter place, he said, he was also running in Kingston, to bring it back to the paths of rightness, and he paid a high tribute to Victoria for giving him a seat when he was defeated in Kingston in 1878. He confidently predicted the return of the government to power.
