CAMP BONAVENTURE AT NEW MILLS AUSPICIOUSLY OPENED LAST SATURDAY MORNING

Forty Youthful Vacationists In Camp—Several Older Guests To Spend Summer at New Mills—
J. D. Littlefield of Cleveland Heads Camp Council Associated With Several Other Notables—A Great Program And Every Facility For An Enjoyable Holiday Provided For.

In Camp Bonaventure at New Mills which was opened to its summer guests on Saturday morning last, Restigouche now has a Summer Camp for boys which will compare favorably with the best institutions of this kind anywhere and, incidentally, one that the people of this part of the country may well be proud of.

Although the officials of the new camp did not at first expect more than 25 or 30 guests this season, 40 boys were on hand for the opening. In addition to this large number of youthful vacationists, several older guests who will summer at New Mills were also present.

Having been tendered a special invitation, a Graphic representative arrived at New Mills on the morning train and had breakfast in the camp where he was extended every courtesy by the officials.

A Success
Even a brief visit to Camp Bonaventure assures one that this worthy undertaking will be a success. With such a thoroughly up-to-date and splendidly equipped camp so admirably located and operated under the supervision of such capable men as its present promoters there is every reason to believe that Camp Bonaventure will, before long, out-grow even its present proportions and enjoy a very wide popularity among both American and Canadian parents who wish to have their boys enjoy a summer outing under the best possible conditions.

The Guests
Of the forty youthful guests at Camp Bonaventure this year, thirty-two are Cleveland boys. One of the remaining eight is a local lad while the others belong to Quebec River, Fredericton and other points within the province. The campers range in age from 9 to 19 years.

In addition to the camp there are three fine cottages near the camp site, all exceptionally fitted up for an enjoyable vacation. Two of these are already occupied. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ellis of Cleveland, who accompanied their son here have taken one of these. Mr. Ellis is manager of the Chemical Supply Co. in his home city. The other is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Zangerle of the same city who also accompanied their boys to Camp Bonaventure. Mr. Zangerle is County Auditor at Cleveland.

Competent Staff
One of the notable things of Camp Bonaventure is its staff of officials. Mr. H. J. Gilman of the D. W. Hoegg Co., New Mills, is the business manager and in a locality where Mr. Gilman is so well known, further comment is unnecessary. Mr. J. D. Littlefield of Cleveland is Camp Director. Mr. Littlefield has had many years experience in boys work and under his direction the success of this new venture is practically assured.

With Mr. Littlefield is associated a council of executives of proven ability. These include Messrs. Raymond Hill, Jerry Ensign, William Segar, Ralph Confield, Jack Kennedy, Charlie Scott of Rothesay College and Sam Willman, noted athlete of Ames College, Ames, Iowa, who will be in charge of athletics at Camp Bonaventure. Dr. McKimlin of Charlottetown, Vt. will be camp physician and Dr. McCready, formerly of Sydney, N. S. and now connected with the Harvard Medical School, is spending the summer at New Mills and will be First Aid instructor.

A Great Program
A great summer holiday program has been arranged for the guests of Camp Bonaventure. Every facility has been provided for a memorable vacation. Sport of every kind will have a place on the program and various motor boat excursions and expeditions to the haunts of wild life are also being provided for.

CARD OF THANKS
Mrs. Allen Adams and family wish to thank their neighbors and friends for their kindness, and also Mr. Gordon for his kindness and care, during their recent sad bereavement.

REGULATION NEEDED
On Water Street today at about 1.30 there were twenty-five cars parked between the Subway and Cedar Street, some of them having been there for over an hour. Surely Campbellton's business street should be kept free of these parked cars.

HENRY DIOTTE OPPOSED CO. BILL

Statement By County Solicitor
Says Local M. P. P. Did Not Favor Protection.

At the Semi-Annual session of the Restigouche Municipal Council held at Dalhousie on Tuesday the statement was made by the County Solicitor, in answer to a question by Coun. Firth, that Henry Diotte, M. P. P., a member of the Corporations Committee, strongly opposed the county's bill asking that a tax be placed upon transient laborers who come into this county.

This bill was favored by the Municipal Council, and was asked for so that local ratepayers might have some protection from the large floating population which comes into this county during the summer months. These laborers come in after the assessment lists are prepared, and consequently escape without contributing anything towards the up-keep of our county.

No doubt Mr. Diotte will be called to task by the laborers of this county when he appears upon the hustings, for his stand in this matter.

tate of $23,000.

Tarrytown, N. Y., July 3.—John D. Rockefeller used to give many of his shiny new dimes to Byran O'Loughlin, the old Irishman who tended the crossing at Pocantico. And at Christmas because the old man lived in a box car and seemed in need, Rockefeller would send him $10.00.

O'Loughlin who had lived in the box car for fourteen years, died this week and it was discovered he had saved the Rockefeller dimes and other dollars and had $23,000 in savings bank here and in New York.

otherwise, and grade and clean up the court house lot.

Coun. Murchie complained that many patients at the Provincial Hospital were being paid for by the different parishes whereas they had property, or their keep had been provided for out of estates. He moved that the Legal adviser be instructed to search the records and endeavor to find out these cases. Carried.

Coun. Firth said that it had cost the county and towns of Restigouche $21,000 to keep the poor last year. He thought it was time something was done regarding a poor farm. He moved that the Warden appoint a committee to confer with other committees from Dalhousie and Campbellton, re poor farm—Motion Lost.

On motion the Sec-Treas. was instructed to transfer the accounts to the Royal Bank of Canada.

CHAUTAUQUA ENTERTAINMENTS MORE POPULAR THAN EVER

Program This Season Is Well Up To High Standard of Former Years—Performances Well Attended —Several Feature Events To Come.

With its third annual run in Campbellton, Summer Chautauqua is this year proving more popular than ever. And that this increasing popularity is well-merited is evident from attendance at the various entertainments enjoyed by local audiences this week.

Chautauqua opened here on Monday afternoon and the big tent, ideally located in a field near the Grammar School Building, has been the scene of a large attendance at every performance since. The evening entertainments have, of course, been the more largely attended and on several occasions the spacious tent has been too small to accommodate all Chautauqua patrons.

Of A High Order

The Chautauqua program this year has been of a high order. The various lectures, this year, as in the past, possess a distinct intellectual and educational value. The various musical numbers were all greatly enjoyed and the play, "Smilin' Thru" presented by a capable cast on Tuesday evening was one of the most popular items on the program.

The Opening Day

Those who attended Chautauqua on opening day were not likely to miss much of the remainder of the program. A musical concert of pleasing variety by "The Versatile Ladies Quintet" was much enjoyed at the afternoon entertainment while in the evening new pieces by this competent company were followed by a highly entertaining lecture by Arthur Wainwright Evans, whose gift as speaker won much favorable comment. Mr. Evans is a natural born entertainer and his extensive travel has evidently contrived to fit him most admirably for platform work. His lecture "Our Unconquered Kings" will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to be present on Monday evening.

The Second Day

The Chautauqua performances were even more largely attended on Tuesday the second day of their run in Campbellton. In the afternoon Mr. Carleton Chamberlayne was heard in a splendid lecture on "The Tyranny of Shams." Mr. Chamberlayne, who is a former editor and writer is a man of wide experience and enviable oratorical ability. His lecture here was a very thoughtful one and its more sober moments were well-balanced with much ready humor which evoked rounds of hearty laughter and applause.

"Smilin' Thru," the famous costume drama which made up the bill for Tuesday evening was a feature of the Chautauqua program here this season. Led by Grace Halsey Mills, an actress of notable histrionic ability the capable cast gave a most satisfactory interpretation.

Another Play
The second play on the Chautauqua program will be presented tomorrow night. This is a sparkling comedy-drama entitled "The Next Best Man." Without a doubt this will be one of the best numbers on the program so far for it is entertainment that will appeal most strongly to all and please alike.

Another feature event of Chautauqua week in Campbellton will be Viera's Hawaiians in a full concert on Saturday night. This number has been claimed in many Canadian towns as the best thing on the whole Chautauqua program.

The program for Sunday has not yet been announced but entertainment of a suitable nature is being arranged for.

GASPE CROPS PROMISE WELL

Farmers In Some Sections Declare Outlook Is The Best In Years.

In common with those of other parts of the dominion the crops on the Gaspé Coast promise unusually well this season. While in many districts in Gaspé County the outlook is not above the average, farmers along the Bonaventure Coast in many sections declare that bumper crops hay, grain and potatoes are assured this season. In some localities the crop outlook is considered the best in years.

NEARING COMPLETION

The new courthouse at Dalhousie, is nearing completion, and is a fine looking building. It is expected that the building will be completed in about a month.

HAD NARROW-ESCAPE IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mr. W. S. Richards of the Richards Mfg. Co. here had a narrow escape from a slow and painful death on Friday night of last week when the car in which he was driving ran over the embankment about a mile below Dalhousie and turned over, pinning him beneath it. Mr. Richards was returning from a lumbermen's meeting in Chatham when the accident occurred. It was in the vicinity of 12 Dalhousie hill district and at that time a heavy fog was being blown up from the bay. This, it is thought, was largely responsible for the accident.

The unfortunate man was pinned beneath the car for nearly two hours. A car passed shortly after the accident but Mr. Richards was unable to attract the attention of the driver. About 1.30 Duval Stewart of Dalhousie, who was motoring home, noticed the lights of the overturned car and hurried to the rescue. He lost no time in getting Mr. Richards to the Soldiers' Memorial Hospital where it was learned that the injured man had no bones broken and that while painful, his injuries were not serious.

BABY LOBSTERS ARE BEING SOLD

Said to Come From New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

Montreal, July 4.—Serious complaint is being made by nature lovers and by persons connected with the fisheries about the huge quantities of baby lobsters from New Brunswick and Nova Scotia which are being sold illegally in Montreal. Although no lobster under six inches in length is supposed to be sent to the market, some of those arriving here are much smaller, no larger than crayfish.

They are in great demand at the fashionable hotels, which are willing to pay as high as seventy cents a pound for them to satisfy the insatiable palates of the American tourists.

A prominent Montreal medical man who hails from the Maine coast and is acquainted with the regulations concerning the trapping of lobsters, has written to the Quebec Ministry of Fisheries, protesting against the continued sale of baby lobsters, and also against a report that the St. Lawrence River lobster fishery is being overfished.

In an interview with a local newspaper, he declared that the fishery is being overfished. "The fact is," he declared, "that the fishery is being overfished. The fact is, that the fishery is being overfished. The fact is, that the fishery is being overfished."

The doctor, whose interest in the question is likely to result in the cessation of this traffic, told now on the Maine coast the inspector, pointing on cages containing several hundred or thousand lobsters, which had a few babies amongst them, confiscated the entire catch, which might represent a week's work. The severity of the lesson was salutary and he recommends its repetition amongst Canadian fishermen at fault.
