TWELFTH YEAR.

PARNELL'S IDIOSYNCRASIES.

REMARKABLE SUPERSTITIONS OF A REMARKABLE MAN.

He Had Been Bitten by an American Woman—Would Not Remain in a Room in Three Candles Were Burning With It—An Antipathy to Green—Other Peculiar Traits.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—James O'Connell, M.P. for Roscommon, called upon Mr. Parnell at his residence in the Strand, and was admitted to see the body of Mr. Parnell. The doctor, who had been called to attend the corpse, suggested that death had resulted from natural causes, and had some without any violent pain.

A dispatch from Brighton says: The doctor's certificate, which has just been filed, states that Mr. Parnell's death was caused by thrombosis of the coronary artery, and that the temperature and pulse were normal.

The delegation from the members of Parliament who followed Mr. Parnell to Brighton, arrived at Brighton this afternoon. After receiving the doctor's certificate giving definitely the cause of Mr. Parnell's death, they adopted a resolution expressing the deepest sorrow at the sudden and unexpected death of their chief, and heartily sympathizing with Mrs. Parnell.

Joseph Chamberlain, when interviewed regarding Parnell's death, said that he would influence the Government to go to the country on the present legislation, but it was more likely that the Government will have to pass the bill. He said that he will with a fair prospect that it could be done if the Opposition would adopt the same attitude towards the bill.

The members of the McCarthyite party anticipate no difficulty in obtaining early control of the Parliament. Mr. Parnell's death did not will or a political declaration. He had no perception of the gravity of his illness or any consciousness of the approach of death.

Among the reminiscences of Parnell published to-day is a contribution from Thomas O'Connor, M.P. for Liverpool, who says he heard while in America that during his visit Mr. Parnell paid a visit to the United States, and met at Newport one of the reigning belles of the season, that he fell in love with and proposed marriage to her.

Mr. O'Connor says Parnell was eminently superstitious, even in the most trivial matters. He would not remain in a room if three candles were burning within it, which he regarded as being peculiarly unlucky. When in the freedom of a city, he would not enter a public house unless he had been invited to do so by a friend.

Mr. Parnell's house in the loneliest part of Brighton. Properly speaking, it is in the English Channel, for it was built on a rock in the middle of the sea. The house was built on a rock in the middle of the sea.

There has been a heavy storm in the English Channel, and the sea is very rough. The surf is so heavy that the spray dashes over the roadway in front of Parnell's house.

TRADE COMING TO CANADA.

What the Finance Minister of British Columbia Has to Say.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Hon. J. H. Turner, the Minister of Finance and Agriculture of the Dominion of Canada, is now on a visit to England. He states that his government will accept $20,000,000 of the $100,000,000 offered by the United States for the settlement of Vancouver by crofters.

Mr. Turner asserts that the movement looking to annexation to the United States has been a practical policy of the colony. The people are too happily engaged in the property brought to them by the Canadian Pacific railway, which is rapidly diverting trade from the United States into Canadian channels.

THE MINING CONVENTION.

AN ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED AND PLATFORM ADOPTED.

No Royalty, No Export Duty on Nickel, Fine and Minerals, Mineral Lands to be $2 Per Acre, and a Liberal Appropriation Asked for a Mining Display at the World's Fair.

SATURDAY, Sept. 27, 1891.—The mining convention held here yesterday and to-day was a very large and representative meeting, all important mining points being represented. The Ontario mining and timber policy was fully discussed and party lines abolished pro tem. The utmost harmony marked the deliberations of the convention.

Resolutions were adopted praying for a repeal of the royalty and other clauses in the act, which was urged in proving so fatal against the mining interests of the country.

Denunciations from all sides were heard from pioneers of the mining development against any and all laws passed having in view the restriction of the mining industry.

An association to be known as the Provincial Mining Association of Ontario was formed with the following provisional officers: President—James Conroy.

For actual settlers and explorers, price of all mineral lands $2 per acre, and for the purpose of the proposed substitution of an act, which would be made to conform to the conditions of the act.

It was agreed that there was nothing to be done in the matter of the Canadian Southern Railway, which was proposed by Mr. Kingmill, on behalf of the Canada Southern Railway Company, asked authority for the proposed substitution of an act, which would be made to conform to the conditions of the act.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

The Mail was Farrerized (started in to abuse the French, the clergy and the church) and lost its party.

The Globe is now Farrerized and the church, the clergy and the French get a column or more daily. Already Mr. Mercer and his party have done it and Mr. Mercer may have to follow suit.

Where there is so much smoke there must be some fire, and we imagine Mr. Chapman and Mr. Abbott are having a desperate war. But the Old Man will not be subdued. Mr. Chapman has been unfortunate; and having been unfortunate he must suppress himself for a while. He must leave his case to time to force himself on his party will not do him or it any good.

The opposition to Mr. Meredith's entrance in the Dominion Cabinet comes from Conservative M.P.'s from Ontario, who think they ought to be "in it" themselves. We can name fifteen aspirants in fifteen seconds.

Mr. Dalton McCarthy is still a possible Cabinet member. It is stated by those who ought to know that an understanding between him and the French Conservatives could be reached in a few minutes. The difficulty in the way is to induce the member for St. John's to abandon his place.

Mr. Adolphus Carter is more than likely to retire from the cabinet. He is also called "the Old Man" in the Anglo-Saxon press. This change would be a great loss to the Government.

A Hamilton paper nominates Senator Sanderson for the Cabinet. How much will he put up for the Cabinet? How much will he put up for the Cabinet?

Every Government must have one or more members who can raise the staves of war. The truly pious Mr. Mowat has his "wind-blown" in the House of Commons. He is not according to the criticism of the parties entrusted with the task. But they raise it all the same.

Mr. Mowat is a good man. Sir John was a good man; and Sir Hector has had his methods laid bare.

Who is to be the "Provider" in the question never to be left out of the proposed resolution. Sir John Thompson, Mr. Foster, Mr. Meredith are not "in it" as yet. And the man who can provide the staves is a very big man on the island of the rock.

Senator Sanderson will undertake the task and the House will be the witness. The House will be the witness. The House will be the witness.

THE REVIEWING COMMITTEE. Bill of the Medical Examiners—Didn't Want Said In Their Water.

The medical men who composed the Board of Examiners which examined the candidates for the position of City Health Officer presented a bill, it will be remembered, for $3000. The service was rendered almost two years ago and no pay had been received.

Other matters discussed were the reports of the Board of Examiners, the Committee on the Waterworks, the Committee on the Streets, and the Committee on the Public Works.

Some fine and amusing claims for damages were also presented. One man claimed for damage done to his property by a fire. Another man claimed for damage done to his property by a fire.

Among the complainants were John Macdonald, who presented a demand for $1000, which was a demand for interest on a loan. Another man claimed for damage done to his property by a fire.

The Board of Examiners was appointed to look into the matter. Its report was laid before the Executive, recommending that the Board of Examiners be re-appointed.

The Royal Grand Opera. The Royal Grand Opera had a tolerably large turnout last evening at their weekly performance. There were 300 men in line, headed by the band.

The Charity Ball at the Grand Opera. The Charity Ball at the Grand Opera was a success. The proceeds were $1000, which was a success.

Discussing the Railroads. The World was near a group of guests at the Queen's last night who were discussing railroads. This was what they said.

Number one: "The Buffalo depot is one of the dirtiest and most disgusting in the city. It is no worse than Syracuse, said number two. 'That's that,' admitted another.

"The New York Central is a great organization, rather reorganizing more than any road I know of," chimed in another.

"The Erie is a good, clean road. Those fellows train a great quantity of goods over another chair.

THE WORLD'S HOUSE GUIDE.

MEETS WITH THE APPROVAL OF HOUSEHOLDERS AND AGENTS.

How to Get a Tenant and How to Get a House—If You Have a House to Let How to Get a Customer—A New Departure in Advertising That the Public Appreciate.

"The best thing yet," was the general opinion passed on The World's House Guide, launched in this paper yesterday. Stripped of all unnecessary introduction it is a scheme for bringing house-owners and house-seekers together without loss of time, and without any failure to connect. The key to the scheme lies in classification.

Under our classified system he can find it in a moment. Every house-hunter knows that it is a waste of time to go to the east of Yonge, west of Yonge, Parkdale, north of Bloor; he also knows about how many rooms he wants; and about what rent he is prepared to pay. The man having such a house to rent or sell by means of our classified guide is enabled to lay it right before him at the moderate cost of 10 cents, and he is enabled to find a tenant or a buyer just as fast as he can get the guide, as published in the paper.

So taken was the town with this scheme yesterday that over 40 new houses were brought in and listed with The World. We expect a much larger number to-day. If you have a house to rent or to sell give this a try.

We intend to classify the "stores to let" in the same way, and also to bring together stores and shopkeepers can be brought into touch immediately. If you have a store to let, or a shop to buy, or a house to rent, or a house to sell, give this a try.

It is also proposed to improve the method of arranging the guide. The last issue of the guide was so popular that we have had to change the column "key ad" to "apply to."

Who is to be the "Provider" in the question never to be left out of the proposed resolution. Sir John Thompson, Mr. Foster, Mr. Meredith are not "in it" as yet. And the man who can provide the staves is a very big man on the island of the rock.
