"Trade in the wholesale trade is picking up a little," said a wholesale dealer yesterday. "Prices generally are steady to easy, but, however, a little heavier for refined sugars, which are quoted at 4 3/8 to 4 1/2."

Retail coal prices have been heavily cut in New York and Brooklyn. In Brooklyn figures of small size are 54 on against $5.25 a short time since, due to disputes regarding the paying of commissions. New York prices are not low as those of Brooklyn.

The Iron Age reports total capacity of pig iron furnaces in blast April at 120,726 tons, against 110,160 tons on March 1, 99,242 tons on Feb. 1, and as compared with 178,800 tons on April 1, 1893. The principal increase in March was in the Chicago district, the Illinois Steel Company "having blown in three furnaces at the South Chicago new plant and two at the old plant, and having started one Bay View stock at Milwaukee."

BINDER TWINE MATERIAL: Inspector Nixon says there was no loss by Depreciation.

At the Public Accounts Committee of the Finance yesterday morning Warden of the Central Prison was under examination again respecting the prices of binder twine material. He quoted numerous figures which showed a depreciation of 50 per cent in the prices of binder twine material, giving the prices of manilla twine last year, to corroborate his statement that Inspector Nixon had bought large quantities on a falling market.

Inspector Nixon stated that he had purchased from month to month. The quotations of prices made by Mr. Masie did not apply to the quality of goods he bought. They were for a grade entitled "fair current," which was a better grade than what he bought was "good marks," the price of which had remained stationary. He had not had a stock of binder twine material, but he had been to import from Manila after July at any price. Mr. Masie had recommended the purchase of "fair current" at six cents per pound, but if he had done so the material could not have been used.

ADMITTED THE SHOENAG: The Heddone Case Entered Upon at the Police Court.

At the Police Court yesterday W. C. Heddone was placed on trial, charged with falsifying the books of the Toronto Land and Loan Company, of which he was treasurer.

Mr. Arthur Harvey, the president of the company, was the only witness. He stated that Mr. Heddone had occupied the position of secretary-treasurer since 1881, and that about March 1 last he found there was something wrong with the books. He had sent the latter admitted that the books had been falsified and that the shortage was over $10,000, but he could not say how much until he had made out a statement. The amount was the amount was found to be $15,104.99. Mr. Heddone stated to him that he had been put in the books to make a satisfactory statement for the directors.

CITY HALL GOSSIP: A. H. Bailey's Gas Enquiry Committee to Meet This Afternoon.

Police Magistrate Denison has completed his report in reference to the charges in the Police Court office. He states the salaries formerly paid amounted to $3800 per annum. At present the total amount is $7742. The work now is more extensive than when the larger amount was paid. He considers those clerks are the worst paid of all the civil employees. It is well for the help recruited from other departments the present staff would be sufficient to do the work.

A. H. Bailey's Gas Enquiry Committee will meet this afternoon at 3.30.

The Court of Revision met yesterday afternoon to discuss the widening of Avenue Road. On the advice of the City Solicitor the whole question was referred back to the Board of Works.

About 100 stone-dressers are working in Blue-street. A number who applied for work are without tools. Commissioner Jones has decided to buy them tools and hand them the money from their wages.

Property-owners in Davenport-road wish to have the street widened. A deputation waited on the Mayor yesterday and stated they would be willing to donate 15 feet each side of the street. If the work is completed in five years.
