PROFESSOR CHAPMAN RESIGNS.

Has Had Charge of the Mineralogical De-partment For a Couple of Decades— New Instructor in German.

Professor Chapman, who has for so nany years been connected with the University of Toronto in the capacity of professor of mineralogy and geology, ent in his resignation to the Minister of Education a day or two ago. He has been intending to resign for a year or two back, but it was only this week that he made up his mind definitely to resign his post. It is understood Mr. J. B.
Tyrrell of the Dominion Geological Department will be a candidate for the position, although there will, of course, be a host of other applicants when the wacancy becomes known.

Mr. P. Toews, a graduate of Toronto University, has been appointed instructor in German at University College.

Mr. Toews has had a splendid lege. Mr. Toews has had a spienula academic training, having been connected with universities in different parts of Europe and America, and as he is a German by birth, and has already had experience as a teacher, he will prove an acquisition to the Modern Language Department of the college.

DISLIKED THE NOTORIETY. Hyams' Uncle Driven Into Seclusion I Harry and Dallas Hyams.

New York, July 11.—The old-fashioned figure, long familiar to the frequenters of the Gilsey House, and known to everybody in it by his nickname of "The Hermit," has vanished. For nearly 18 years the squat, bowed, round-shouldered man, with the downcast eyes, hook nose and grizzled grey mustache, has been a notable presence in the hotel.

Few of the many thousands of men and women who daily saw him there knew that his name was Solomon Yorely Hyams. Fewer still of these, who interested themselves in the trial at Toronto of

"Every time I see a man who knows me," he remarked, "I fear he will say something about the case, and that cuts me," he remarked, "I fear he will say something about the case, and that cuts me to the heart."

When the Toronto jury disagreed, and the suspense was for the time over, Mr. Hyams sought out a rciuge. The gout, from which he had suffered ,crippled him. His physician suggested Hot Springs, and thither he went on Friday last. No one in the hotel believes that he will ever come back.

one in the hotel believes that he will ever come back.

Mr. Hyams had earned the pseudonym of "The Hermit" from the fact that, except for a former visit to Hot Springs, about 10 years ago, he had never been known to go outside of the hotel. His prother, father of Harry and Dallas Hyams, kept the St. Charles Hotel, in Naw Orleans. New Orleans.
