CHOP STUFF.

Newbury will have a new look-up. Ingersoll will have a new post office. A new Methodist Church is being built at Greenway. Petrols bicycle clubs have a membership of about 200. Pt. Huron will have a military celebration on July 5th. Parkhill Orangemen will celebrate the 12th at Lucan. Another electric light plant is being installed in Exeter. Wallaceburg stores close at 6 p. m. three evenings in the week. Theford defeated Parkhill at base ball last week by 36 to 6. Arnold's saw mill, south of Bridgen, was burnt down last week. The new Johnston House, Forest, was opened on Jubilee Day. The block recently destroyed by fire at Alvinston will be rebuilt. Hon. G. W. Ross spoke at a picnic in Melbourne on Dominion Day. Oil City defeated Wyoming at base ball Jubilee Day by a score of 15 to 14. Over 4000 crates of strawberries were shipped from Leamington last week. Forest Sons of Scotland pic-nicked at Lake Valley Grove on Dominion Day. A wholesale tobacco and cigar business will probably be established in Sarnia. Wm. Lindsay, of Brisbane, Australia, is home on a visit to relatives in Oil Springs. A Forest man was so eager to commence gardening that he stole a hoe from a widow. Forest Chief of Police is enforcing the town by-law prohibiting fast driving on the streets. The congregation of Burns' Presbyterian Church, Mosa, have decided to build a new manse. Water lilies are plentiful in Sarnia Bay, but lilies of the valley are scarce in Pt. Edward. Miss Mae Smith, of Wyoming, has the distinction of being the youngest graduate of Alma College. The death took place at Forest on Tuesday of last week of Miss Ethel Hobson, aged 20 years. A tramp stole $35 from the pants of a Lobo J. P. last week. This looks like a case of contempt of court. Strathroy will have a race meeting on Dominion Day. Liberal prizes are offered and a good day's sport is expected. Miss Maude Cameron, of Petrols, carried off the honors in the elocutionary contest at the Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby. Jas. Dunlop, of Forest, has invented a wooden bicycle which is said to be equal to any high grade wheel on the market. An Enniskillen hen recently laid an egg measuring nine inches in circumference. About four this size should make a dozen. The flag staff on the Pt. Huron city hall trembled when Lonie Kelly led the cheering on the return of the 27th Batt. from camp. A Brockville barber shop run on the cash system has this sign in front of the chair:—"If you can't raise ten cents, raise whiskers."

The Petrols Advertiser strongly objects to the P. O. being locked up on holidays, preventing box holders from obtaining their mail.

Four Forest anglers gathered in 400 bass, pickerel and perch in one day's fishing last week. They have now made their century run.

The corner stones of the new Methodist church at Appin were laid Dominion Day. Mrs. (Dr.) Eccles, of London, laid one of the stones.

Lucan and Craig are discussing the amount of business done in their respective towns. The Craights apparently have the best of it.

Mayor Boynton, of Pt. Huron, received a number of valuable presents and complimentary addresses on the occasion of his 60th birthday.

Jacob Ryder, brother of the proprietor of the Hotel Vendome, Sarnia, died on Saturday. The remains were taken to Aton, for interment.

An Adelaide horse trader visited Craig the other day, and done up the local dealers with a fore and aft kicker that could dismount Josh Billing's mule.

Trolley parties are popular in Pt. Huron. A street car is chartered and the guests are entertained after the ride, providing their trolleys do not get twisted.

James King, 8th line of Moore, died while sitting in his chair the other day. The old gentleman was in his 84th year, and had served in the rebellion of 1836.

A genuine Quaker wedding took place at the Friend's meeting house in Coldstream on Thursday last, when Charles Palmer, of Chester, Pa., and Arletta Cutler, of Lobo, were made one.

There were a number of very mad people in Parkhill on the morning of Jubilee Day. The train for London pulled out while a number of passengers were getting their tickets at the office.

The Jubilee celebration at Wyoming was only excelled by the big show in London. The Queen and many of the leading characters of the empire were represented, big as life, and just as pretty.

The Florence Quill says that last week Bert Heyward, son of Mr. Thomas Heyward, shot forty-seven chipmunks, two crows and a weasel in his father's corn field on the Roberts farm, Euphemia.

Chas. Roche has disposed of the Western Hotel, Sarnia, to Peter Forbes, late of Wallaceburg and Port Lambton. The consideration was $3,000. Mr. Forbes took possession of the premises Wednesday.

It is needless to inform most readers that Mr. D. Macnish, the genial representative of West Elgin in the Legislature, is a bachelor and rather prides himself in it. A short time ago "Dan" received a letter from Premier Hardy informing him that one of the newly surveyed townships up north had been named Macnish, as judging from his record and talk, he (Mr. Hardy) had concluded it was the only way to perpetuate the honored name.

LAMBTON'S CRAOK BATTALION

Carried off the Honors at the Brigade Camp.

From various sources we learn that the 27th Batt. carried off the honors of the infantry brigade in camp at London.

Col. Ellis, officers and men, have been complimented by the camp commanders, from Gen. Gascoigne down to the officers of the day, on the soldierly appearance of the battalion, the order and cleanliness of the battalion camp lines, and the well kept appearance of its arms, accoutrements and clothing.

The guard mountings of the 27th, regarded as one of the best tests of a regiment's efficiency and soldierly bearing, was the subject of outspoken praise among officers of the staff and of the permanent corps.

In drill the battalion made rapid progress and compared more than favorably with the other corps in camp, and better than all the men's behavior in camp has been above reproach.

These are honors of which Col. Ellis and the officers and men under his command may well feel proud, and in which the towns and villages from which Lambton's military representatives have been mustered may also take a share. It has been the aim of Col. Ellis, since he took command, to have none but qualified officers holding commissions in the 27th. He has worked steadily to that end and has now the satisfaction of having as nearly attained his object as is perhaps possible with a volunteer militia corps. The beneficial effect of trained officers for the several companies has been most marked during the present camp and had much to do with the good showing and excellent record made by the 27th.—Observer.

Camp Clippings.

Every company in the 27th Battalion has officers from the military school. The result was plainly visible in the excellent handling of the men.—News.

No. 5 Co., of the 27th Battalion, received the battalion cup presented by Lieut. Col. Ellis, to the company doing the best work at the ranges. The company made an average score of 67 points per man.

Lieut. R. I. Towers, of No. 6 Company, St. Clair Borderers, has received his first class military certificate. Lieut. Towers was attending Wolseley Barracks prior to the opening of Camp.

Capt. Swift, of No. 6 Company, gave four cash prizes to those making the best score at any range or aggregate. The winners were: Corp. Lamb, David Brown, Robert Lucas and Sanford Lucas.

On Saturday the Twenty Seventh St. Clair Borderers, took their turn at the butts and entered into competition for the beautiful silver cup presented by Lieut. Col. Ellis. The trophy was carried off by No. 5 Co. The shooting was as good as could reasonably be expected.

The London Advertiser says:—The guard mounted last night by the Twenty-Seventh was pronounced by every officer who saw them to have been the best turned out since the corps went into camp. The officers of Wolseley Barracks admitted frankly that the school could not do better than the Twenty-Seventh in this respect.

The 27th Battalion claims the base ball championship of the camp. They have defeated in turn the teams of the 26th Battalion and the Hussars and have now issued a challenge to the whole camp, the game to be played this evening, or to-morrow. The battery of the team consists of Newell, of Watford, and Hanna, of Sarnia.—London News.

The London Free Press, of Friday, contained an item in which it appeared that two men of No. 8 Co., 26th St. Clair Borderers, quarreled while at dinner and one stabbed the other with a bayonet. The Free Press may be all right as to the stabbing, but as St. Clair Borderers is not the title of the 26th, and as there is no No. 8 Co. in the 27th, which alone holds the title of St. Clair Borderers, it is quite evident that the stabbing was not done by any of the men from Lambton.

And soon the Twenty-Seventh Battalion was seen marching down Adelaide street. The same perfect form characterized the marching of the men. The only difference was that more people were on the streets. Many were the expressions of satisfaction from the groups of spectators along the line of march as the gallant St. Clair Borderers marched past. The Battalion was drawn up on the fields to the south of London East station, while the train which was to carry them home backed in. Before they were dismissed Lieut. Col. Ellis made a brief speech, after which the men took off their hats and gave three ringing cheers for the Queen, the Colonel and the officers.

No remedy of modern times has offered more, or stronger proof of its sterling merit than that has Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The cures are not those of people in foreign lands, but from all parts of our own country, and the statements made are easily verified by everyone in the vicinity in which the cures reported occur. When such proof as this is offered, doubt must cease, and the medicine must be awarded the palm of superiority over all others. Every mail brings letters from grateful people in all parts of Canada, who have been cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, sometimes after years of illness and after other medicines had failed, and it is the words of gratitude spoken by sufferers thus restored to health that has created the enormous demand this medicine has. The following letter is but a fair sample of hundreds constantly being received:—

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co.
DEAR SIRS,—I have great pleasure in bearing testimony to the medicinal value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as a blood purifier and health restorer. For ten years I was a victim to a complication of troubles, beginning with quinsy and followed by rheumatism and bronchitis. My physicians told me the trouble had become chronic, and that every winter I would either have to house myself up or go to a warmer climate. Two years ago I was confined to my bed and room from February until May, under the doctor's care. One day while reading of the cures wrought by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I determined to try them, and I found a cure at last in this splendid medicine. I used a dozen boxes of the pills and I have never been better in my life than I am now, and I have not been troubled in any way with my old complaints since I discontinued the use of the Pink Pills. As I have already stated I was a sufferer for years, and during that period spent a small fortune in doctor's medicine and drugs, only to find in the end that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills accomplished what all other medicines failed to do. When my friends who know how often I was laid aside with illness asked me what cured me I am always happy to say Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Yours gratefully,
Miss J. A. McKim,

Legal Decision Affecting Benefit Society Members.

Toronto, June 24.—At Osgoode Hall, before Judge Robertson, Bain vs. Supreme Court of the Independent Order of Foresters.—Judgment in action tried without a jury at Sarnia. Action by Robert A. Bain, an engineer, residing in the township of Enniskillen, upon an endorsement certificate issued by defendants, whereby they contracted to pay plaintiff $500 in the event of his becoming totally disabled. On March 13, 1893, plaintiff lost his left hand and a part of his left arm. Held, that his disability is not, having regard to his occupation and other circumstances, total and permanent. Action dismissed with costs. War (Sarnia) and W. E. Fitzgerald (Watford), for plaintiff; J. A. McGillivray, Q. C., for defendants.
