RAIN KILLED

THE FAIR DIRECTORS COMPELLED BY WET WEATHER TO CALL

> OFF EAST LAMBTON FALL FAIR

After a two weeks' spell of delight-fully fine weather the day selected for the Watford Fair turned out to be one of almost continual rain, com-pletely upsetting all preparations for what was expected to be one of the best fairs in the history of the East Lambton Agricultural Society. From before daylight a steady rain fell until afternoon, with a threatening sky for the rest of the day, the con-ditions beinb so discouraging that soon after noon the Directors decided to call the fair off and gave permisto call the fair off and gave permission to the competitors to remove their exhibits. display in the buildings was The The display in the buildings was good, though in roots, vegetables and fruits not as large as might be expected for such a prolific year. In the ladies' fancy work department there was a large display of exceedingly fine work, and the domestic science class was also well filled. In the dairy department the entries were not suppressed and there was only a not numerous and there was only a small display ni grains and seeds small display ni grains and seeds.

In poultry only three sections were shown, and few entries in all other out-door departments. There were mo sheep shown and only two classes of hogs, only a few horses and about 14 catle.
There were 1200 entries in the in-

There were 1200 entries in the indoor departments but only a few in te out-door $11 was the amount of the gate receipts.

The School Fair held in conjunction with the Agricultural Society, was a splendid affair, the numerous exhibits showing that the young shibits showing that the young the state of the state was a splendid affair, the numerous exhibits showing that the young people are deeply interested. The exhibitors deserve considerable praise for the many articles on exhibition.

The Directors will meet on Saturday, October 30th, to revise the prize list, after which date exhibitors will be paid the prize money.

Relief For the Depressed.—Physical and mental depression usually have their origin in a disordered state of the stomach and liver, as when these organs are deranged in their action the whole system is affected. Try Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. They revive the digestive processes, act beneficially on the nerves and restore the spirits as no other pills will. They are cheap, simple and sure, and the effects are lasting.
