AUXILIARY NOTES.

The September Board Meeting was held in St. James' Cathedral school house, on the 8th, and for the first for the season, was very well attended; we welcomed several visitors from outside points, and felt that our special Thanksgivings were indeed from the heart. Especial mention was made of the great loss to the Diocesan Board, and to the Central Room, of Mrs. Charlesworth, also of Mrs. Drayton, our valued Life Member, both were suddenly called to their rest. Very interesting letters were read, one, from the Bishop of Natal, relating to John Nzipo, markedly so, as giving us an opportunity for doing direct foreign work for a native. See Sept. LEAFLET, page 367.

Mr. Waller's return was reported, and our hope that in October we should hold a quarterly meeting to be addressed in the afternoon by Mrs. Waller, and in the evening by Mr. Waller, who has superb views of Japanese life.

The Devotional reading was taken by Miss Osler, and was the first on the subject of the Members' Prayer. See August LEAFLET, page 329, "The Services of faithful women." From the Bible we were shown that Service is a privilege; our Saviour accepted loving, grateful, faithful Service of women. There is service in apparent failure, we may work on through many difficulties remembering the "heavy stone was rolled
