Which amendment passed.

G. W. P. submitted the following Report of the Committee appointed at the last Annual Session to investigate the financial affairs of the G. D., and report at this Quarterly Session.

The Committee appointed to investigate and report on the Financial affairs of the Grand Division, beg leave to Report as follows :—

Your Committee, Brethren, find the financial affairs of the body to be in a deplorable condition. The books were satisfactorily kept and the money properly accounted for, until the period when the last G. S. took office in October, 1849. Since then there have been very few entries made in the books, and it is utterly impossible to ascertain what amounts have passed through his hands, or how much he is now in arrears to the Grand Division. Your Committee beg leave to refer the Grand Division to the correspondence on the subject with the late Grand Scribe, in which he professes a willingness
