THE QUERISTS' ALBUM:

A BOOK FOR CONFESSIONS AND AUTOGRAPHS.

This is a Confession Book arranged after a plan which has long been fashionable with young ladies who desire to know the private views of their friends and acquaintances. Thus, for instance, the questions begin with "What virtue do you most esteem," and "Define briefly your ideal man," go on through queries which demand the name of your favourite heroes and heroines in history, fiction, and end by asking whether you have ever been in love, and also (and this we think very judicious) your age. Space is left for replies, and for autographs, and a number of confessions can be contained in this little volume, which is handsomely bound, and will no doubt be provocative of much amusement. It will, we expect, be popular in many a drawing-room.

Very nicely got up, 32mo. size, bound in illustrated cloth boards, 90c. in imitation morocco, $1.25. Mailed free. CLOUGHER BROS., Booksellers, 27 King Street West, Toronto.
