

Holloway's Medicines.—We are not in the habit generally of noticing the thousand and one medicines of the day; but when a really meritorious one is before the public, we think it due to the afflicted, the fact should be made known. We have used Holloway's Pills and Ointment in cases of humours, bruises and scalds, with beneficial effects, and there are cases within our knowledge of extraordinary cures performed in cases of long standing Professor Holloway's Ointment and Pills are among the few preparations which perform ALL the cures for which they are recommended. We are satisfied that for purifying the blood, relaxing the stomach, and curing liver and bilious complaints, no better remedy can be found. —Dangor Deponit.
