

Dr. Murray MacLaren, of St. John, N.B., went out to the Pacific coast after the Winnipeg meeting. On his return journey, he stopped in Toronto, and remained for a few days, from September 22 to September 28.

Drs. T. J. Johnston, R. S. Richardson, and J. Robert, of Toronto, after doing post-graduate work in London, England, passed the examinations for the "double qualifications," M.R.C.S., Eng., and L.R.C.P., Lond.

Dr. Oswald T. Dinnick, who left Toronto last spring to do post-graduate work, has requested leave of absence for one year from the University of Toronto. If his request is granted, he will probably remain in England until next October.

Dr. C. A. Langmaid, '06 graduate of Toronto, has returned from the old country, after spending three years abroad, attending the hospitals in London, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Dublin and Paris. He has settled at 23 Brunswick Ave., and will practise general medicine.

Dr. Frederick A. Cleland, who graduated from the University of Toronto in 1901, and practised for some years in New York, has removed to Toronto, and opened an office at 134 Bloor West, and announces to the medical profession that he will devote his attention to gynecology.