

NAPOLEON standing with folded arms on the lonely and barren rocks of Saint Helena, banished a thousand miles from shore, gazing out across the solemn sea toward France, where he was once Emperor, is one of the most tragic scenes in history. This picture from Ridpath's History illustrates but one event out of thousands which are fully described and illustrated in the world-famed publication—

We will name our price only in direct letters to those sending us the Coupon below. Tear off the Coupon, write name and address plainly, and mail to us now before you forget it. Dr. Ridpath's family derive an income from his history, and to print our price broadcast, for the sake of more quickly selling these few sets, would cause great injury to future sales.

RIDPATH throws the mantle of personality over the old heroes of history. Alexander is there; patriot, warrior, statesman, diplomat, crowning the glory of Grecian history. Xerxes from his mountain platform sees Themistocles with three hundred and fifty Greek ships smash his Persian fleet of over a thousand sail, and help to mould the language in which this paragraph is written. Rome perches Nero upon the greatest throne an earth, and so sets up a poor madman's name to stand for centuries as the synonym of savage cruelty; Napoleon fights Waterloo again under your very eyes, and reels before the iron fact that at last the end of his gilded dream has come. Bismarck is there, gruff, overbearing, a giant pugilist in the diplomatic ring, laughing with grim disdain at France, which says, "You shall not." Washington is there, "four-square to all the winds," grave, thoughtful, proof against the wiles of British strategy and the poisoned darts of false friends; clear-seeing over the heads of his fellow countrymen, and on into another century, the most colossal world-figure of his time.

Hundreds who read this have decided to buy Ridpath some day, now is the time. No need for us to tell you about Ridpath. The English-speaking world has pronounced this the only history of the world worth having. It is to-day in 200,000 American homes and is endorsed by Public Men—Educators—Business Men—The Clergy and everybody who knows history. SEND COUPON TO-DAY.
