

THE NEW ENGLAND CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

The New England Conservatory of Boston, Mass., stands deservedly at the head of American Schools of Musical Training. During the lifetime of its founder, Dr. Tourjée, it had already won the confidence and support of the American people, and since his death the acceptance of the directorship by the scholarly musician, Mr. Carl Faelten, has given the institution an impetus and standing second to none in this country.

A careful investigation will quickly convince anyone that nothing is left undone for the highest intellectual improvement of its pupils and that the moral influences thrown around them are far reaching and in every way beneficial. The Conservatory is evidently no place for the lazy or frivolous, but to those who desire the highest attainment, and are willing to devote the necessary amount of study and investigation aided by minds of exceptional ability, this Conservatory offers inducements and privileges heretofore unattainable in America.

WHAT IS A CHRISTIAN?

Truth above all—it is the Christian's word;
Love over all—it is the Christian's soul;
Live beyond all—it is the Christian's hope;
To lay down mortal life for Christ, who lived
For truth and love, and died for him
Immortal—
This is to be a Christian.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION. — People have begun to feel that they are treading upon unsafe ground, the cinders are crumbling from beneath them, and they feel the heat of the fire of the concealed pit, which every nation or Church diggeth for itself, which educates not her children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

There is a prevailing tendency among the young—men especially—to believe there will be time enough in their future days to obey the bidding of Christ: "Turn ye to God." Some young people seem to say, "Now is not the appointed time for us to turn to God; wait till we get older. In about fifty years we will give the matter our serious attention."

The seeds sown in childhood, when stirred up in old age, do bear rich fruit, and cause souls to rejoice. Of this Dean Stanley gave a beautiful example when he related to the children in Westminster Abbey how he had been visiting Lord Stratford de Redcliffe, and found the aged statesman repeating the Evening Hymn he had learned from his nurse ninety years before.
