THE COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

THE VACANT RED. HATS THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT UNWILLING TO PAY THE COST OF FOUR NEW CARDINALS.

ROME, June 10.—There have never been so many vacancies in the College of Cardinals since 1877 as there are at the present moment. The number of vacant hats is no fewer than fifteen, without counting that which is waiting for the unknown prelate who has been reserved in petto since December, It was expected that a Consistory would be held in the course of next month to fill some of these vacancies, and satisfy a few, at any rate, of those aged dignituries who think they have waited long enough for the ecclesiastical purple. Moreover, the diminished number of the cardinals resident in Curia is a cause of some inconvenience to the Vatican ; but difficulties exist with reference to the four French hats vacant, the influence of France in the Sacred College being now reduced from the customary seven to three.

It is a question of money, however, rather than of men. The French Government has asked for hats for Monsignor Place, Archbishop of Rennes, and Monsignor Bernardou, Archbishop of Sens, and there is some talk of Monsignor Langenieux, Archbishop of Rheims. Leo XIII. views these nominations with all favor; but last year the article in the French budget was suppressed, which granted an extraordinary allowance over and above the incomes derived from their sees to those Bishops and Archbishops who were made what is termed National Cardinals - that is, Cardinals occupying residential sees in the country. It follows as a matter of course that prelates elevated to that rank acquire increased dignity and influence, involving in-ereused expenditure, and additional means are therefore requisite to enable them properly to support their high position.

The Pope cannot afford to supply them and he is very justly of opinion that i pay for them, as the other Catholic powers do. On this point negotiations are going for ward, and while they are pending the Pope is unwilling to put an apparent slight or France by making a batch of Cardinals with out including the Archbishops of Sens and Rennes in the number. It was for that self same reason that he created only two Cardi nals at the Consistory held on March 24.

In the mean time, at the next Consistory whenever it may be held, red hats will be conferred upon Monsignor Gaugibauer, Arch-bishop of Vienua; Monsignor Laurenzi Assessor of the Holy Office; Monsignor Masotti, Secretary of the Congregation of Bishops and Regulars: Monsignor Gori, See retary of the Consistorial Congregation, and on a Spanish Bishop. The names also are mentioned of Monsignor Theodoli, Majordomo mentioned of Monsignor Theodolf, Majordonio of His Holiness; Monsignor Strossmayer, Bishop of Bosnia; Monsignor Aloisi Masella, Ex-Nuncio of Portugal; Monsignor Capecelatro, Bishop of Capua, and Monsignor Battaglini, Archbishop of Bologna, whose flock have petitioned His Holiness for a red hat for him.

There is, however, a good deal of opposi-tion at the Vatican against the purple being given to Monsignors Capecelatro and Battaglini, and, as regards Monsignor Aloisi Masella, he left his post at the Portuguese court against Leo XIII.'s wish, and it was understood that the Pope had determined not to confer upon him the red hat that King Louis had requested for him until the regulation period of six years, of which half has still to run, had expired.

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE

AS A NERVE FOOD. Dr. J. W. Smith, Wellington, O., says 'In impaired nervous supply I have used it to advantage.

THE TUNNEL SCHEME.

London, June 24. Sir Edward William Watkin, M.P. for Hythe, is as enthusiastic as ever over his channel tunnel project, despite the adverse majority of 138 in the House of Commens last month and the sturdy composition of the Duke of Cambridge, the opposition of the Duke of Cambridge, the commander of the forces, and of Mr. Jos. Chamberlain, president of the Board of Trade. Sir Edward was seen by your correspondent at the Reform Club last night, and in reply to a question as to the commanderin-chief's objections, said emphatically: -1 do not care two pence for the Duke of Cambridge's opinion. I will make that tunnel in spite of his opposition and that of MI

Chamberlain. What about the adverse vote in the House in May? That was obtained by the lobbying of the coast railway companies. The cause of their hostility is very obvious, for who would cross the Channel in the wretched little steamers if they could go under it by rail in a safe tunnel. As far as that opposition is a safe tunnel. As far as that opposition is concerned, time is our best ally. Public opinion and public needs already require the tunnel, and they will soon demand it in a voice that will be both unmistakable and irresistible.

Its Grand Single Number Drawings take place monthly.

A SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY TO WIN A FORTUNE. SEVENTH GRAND DRAWING, CLASS G., IN THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC, NEW ORLEANS, THESDAY, July 15, 1881 17011 Monthly Drawing.

But the Duke of Cambridge asserts that there are military reasons that would make the construction of a tunnel between France and England inexpedient and even dangerous. Just so; but I am willing to set against that notion of his Grace's the opinion of the Duke of Wellington. It is well known that he favored the prospect of an international tunnel, and I believe that the English people still regard the hero of Waterloo as a more capable strategist than the present commander of her Majesty's forces, even with Lord Wolseley thrown in. Then you do not fear an invasion of England ria the tunnel? No. The idea is absurd. If the French should attempt it they would be foiled, just as Pharoah was in his pursuit of the Israelites, and it would not require a miracle

THE EGYPTIAN PROBLEM.

LONDON, June 24 .- In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Gladstone said full answers had not yet been received from the various powers in regard to the Anglo-French agree-ment. This, however, would not delay the meeting of the conference. Mr. Childers, Chancellor of the Exchequer, will attend the conference as representative of the financial interests of his government. The Vienna newspapers consider the Anglo-French agreement regarding Egypt as highly advan-tageous to France. At Cairo the proposed arrangements for the future of Egypt create a most favourable impression. Abyssinian advices state that King John has ordered the Gallas to assemble on the northern frontier. The king is resolved not to allow Kassala to remain in the possession of the Arabs, and will seize it should it fall into their hands.

Many Scotchmen insist that the deerhound was the original of all the dogs of Great Britain. Yet the breed is so neglected now, through the decadence of deer chasing and stag coursing and other causes, that its ad-McSHANE BELL FOUNDRY mirers are afraid it will become extinct, even in the highlands. Precedents for such an untoward event are found in the utter disappearance of the Irish wolfhound, and in the extinction of the turnspit, once a dweller in
