COL. ROBERTS, A NOTED IRISH-AMERICAN, APPOINTED BY PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.

The subject of this sketch, Col. William R. Roberts, has been a resident of New York City for nearly forty years, for the greater part of the time being engaged in mercantile pursuits. For over twenty years he ranked among the successful and promi-nent merchants of the metropolis; he amassed a handsome fortune and, in 1876, retired from business, being then largely interested in real estate. He had for years enjoyed not only a state but a national reputation, through his generous benefactions to charitable and patriotic movements, besides his practical sympathies with all efforts to benefit his native land.

HIS CONGRESSIONAL CAREER. In 1870, Col. Roberts was elected to the Forty-second Congress from this city, receiving 13,000 votes out of the 15,000 polled for three candidates; in 1872 he was re-elected to the Forty-third Congress; at this, his second election, there were 25,000 votes cast, of which he received 20,000, the only Congressional candidate in the State running ahead of both the Presidential and the State ticket. So acceptable was his four years' record that he was tendered renomination and re-election for the third term, in 1874, but declined.

Col. Roberts' career in Congress was distinguished by his inflexible opposition to all schemes having for their object the depletion of the national treasury. He vigorously opposed all measures tending to keep open the wounds of the rebellion and to do injury to the suffering people of the Souah. His maiden speech was made against the so-called "Ku Klux Bill," giving to the President the power to suspend the writ of Habeas Corpus whenever he thought proper, and his reasoning was so trenchant and his views so statesman like that he was warmly complimented by all the Democratio members in the House, particularly by his colleagues from New York city.

He was the only Democrat, besides Mr. Clarkson N. Potter, who supported the Supplemental Civil Rights Bill in 1873, recognizing the civil rights of the colored people. In this he was only a little ahead, for soon the entire party advanced to that position, which has at last given it victory.

His speech against the extra subsidy of half a million a year to the Pacific Mail was acknowledged by its supporters as being the cause of its defeat; it failed by a bare majority of five votes. It was on a resolution of his that the grant of Goat Island, in the harbor of San Francisco, to the Pacific Railroad was recalled from the Senate after having passed the House, and was finally killed. A question of the rights of American citizens in foreign countries arose to general interest mainly through his exertions in the case of Dr. Howard, a citizen of Philadeiphia, who was imprisoned in a Spanish dungeon for alleged sympathy with the Cuban patriots. It was largely through his action and his speech in the House on April 25, 1872, that the imprisoned citizen was liberated, the New York member receiving warm acknowledgments for it from Dr. Howard's family in hiladelphia. It was also on a resolution of his that the imprisoned Feniaus in Canadian ails, for the invasion affair of 1866, were liberated. Perhaps the most remarkable speech of his Congressional career was made on May 20, 1872, on the Alabama Claims question; it made a pamphlet of 45 pages, and was much referred to, being admitted by the prominent members of the House to be one of the ablest arguments and most comprehensive historical reviews of the injustice of England, the hostility of her consuls and agents in different parts of the world, in baffling the United States consuls and inflicting injury upon our commerce and on the Union cause. His speech in favor of encouraging American shipping was largely noticed and praised by the press at the time.

It was during Mr. Roberts' term of service in Congress that the noted "Back Pay" Bill was introduced; he opposed the bill on principle and whom it was introduced. ciple: and when it passed he was the first man to order the Sergeant-at-Arms to turn his portion of the "pay"—some $5,000—into the United States Treasury, refusing even to draw it. He thus set an example which was eventually followed by several other members. In connection with Irish affairs he was some twenty years ago, the unpaid head of a National Irish-American organization; as such he defrayed out of his own pocket all the expenses of his labors and journeyings, besides freely giving of his means to promote the cause of justice and liberty; he displayed in this the same devotion to American principles that he did in the case of Dr. Howard.

Col. Roberts is now some 55 years of age, is a man in the prime of health and vigor of fine physique, cultivated mind and good address. He has travelled and read exten-sively, and his broad mind, business training, and experience in public affairs make him perfect type of the American business man and Democratic statesmen of our day.

His name is known wherever the English language is spoken, and wherever known he is respected. In any position to which he may be called in the service of the American people, we are sure that he will prove that he has all the qualities of mind, capacity and character fitting him to discharge his duties with honor to himself and credit to the country. In any post of responsibility he will assuredly reveal the characteristics of his whole life-disinterestedness of self, strict uprightness and devotion to the principles which he believes in, and to the friends whom he esteems.

COLLISION AT SEA.

HALIFAX, April 16.—The German steam-ship Main, of Bremen, from New York for that port via Southampton, arrived here today and reports on Tuesday last having been barely time to launch a boat and pull away before she sank. A Russian Finn named Lakstrom, who was at the wheel at the time of the disaster, went down with the wreck. The others, thirteen in number, two being picked up from the floating wreckage, reached the Main, and the latter headed for this port. The hole in the Main's starboard bow will have to be temporarily repaired here before she can proceed, five or six plates being broken. The Kalfaja was a barque of 666 tons, was launched eleven years ago, and was owned by A. Santoholma & Co., of Kalajaki,

A Man's Thanka. A well known business man of Wilmington, N.C., writes to express his thanks for the benefit which his wife has derived from the use of Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"It is with pleasure," he says, "that I write to express to you my graticude for the relief and benefit your Vegetable Compound has been to my Wife, who has been troubled with ulceration and a tumor weighing 2 1 2 lbs., so the doctor said. She has been under the treatment of the doctor for been under the treatment of the doctor for six years. Finally he said he could do nothing more for her, that she would die in 24 hours. Then I commenced using Compound, as soon as she commenced to take it she commenced getting better and now she can attend to her domestic affairs as well as she ever could." Ladies Weaknesses.

Mr. T. H. Gafford of Church Hill, Md., is so thankful for the restoration of his wife to complete health that he is willing to certify to the fact and manner of her cure. To Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham: This is to certify to the grand effects of your Vegetable Compound. My wife was suffering from a terrific disease which seemed to baffle the skill of the best medical men. She was in a poor languid, de-pressed, nervous condition. We finally con-cluded to try your Vegetable Compound and to our great surprise the half of one bottle had not been taken before there seemed to be a thorough change in her whose condition, and now to day she is in good health and entirely relieved from all former depressed feelings.
