

with eye unbleached, and cheek untinged. He has great connexions; and it is therefore, a condescension in him to pillage what he denominates a common person; he has however, if strongly pressed, no invincible repugnance to make a meal of a tradesman, though his fare, when he can choose it is generally noblemen in their minority. Nothing so succinct as a peer under age, to be eaten in due time with post obit sauce.

Reader! starve, beg, or—no, we must not say, rob—but, whatever you do, eschew the Money-Lender. He who is bound in his bills, though he may think himself a man, is, indeed, only a pigeon, a guinea-pig, a rabbit—with a torpid boa.

FINE CHANCES TO MARRY.—One of the ministers, says the Princess Belgiojoso, in her Eastern travels in very good circumstances, had three daughters.—The minister perceived that no one made them an offer, and thought it advisable to wait no longer.—One Sunday he preached on matrimony. The text: "Increase and multiply," declaring to his congregation that it was a command, and not merely a counsel. He dilated with eloquence and warmth on the chaste pleasures of wedlock, and ended his sermon by offering his three daughters to any persons that were willing to marry them. He added that, after the sermon, he would receive the names of the offerers, and that his choice would fall on those who possessed the best moral character. A facetious Irishman who was present did not await the moment indicated by the priest to raise his voice; he requested that his name should be placed on the list for two.

PROSPECTUS

"THE CANADIAN FREEMAN."

On the 16th day of July will be Published,
IN TORONTO,

THE CANADIAN FREEMAN, an Independent
Weekly Catholic Newspaper.

The Catholics of Western Canada generally, feel the want of a Weekly Family Newspaper, which, while reproducing for them the news of the Old World, will also give its best attention to the interests of Canada, their new country, and the country of their children. They want a Paper which, while cultivating in its readers a genuine Canadian patriotism—loyalty to the Institutions under which they live, and the Sovereign who presides over them—will, at the same time, observe the most perfect and impartial Independence of the political parties of the day.

While addressing itself to Catholic readers, The Canadian Freeman will always endeavour to be guided by such a spirit of courtesy and conciliation as will entitle it to be included in the reading stock of every really liberal man and Institution in Western Canada. On fundamental questions—such as the religious education of our own children—there can be no compromise: but on all social and broadly political questions, it will be its policy to identify and combine its readers with the rest of their fellow-subjects, in all enterprises and improvements calculated to promote the peace and prosperity of this magnificent Province.

A great and growing evil of our state of Society is the spread of that secret politico-religious Association of exotic origin, foreign to Canada, and fatal to its peace—the Orange Institution. It is to be feared, if this system proceeds, without effectual discouragement from the guardians of the laws, and without the most resolute opposition from the public press, that counter Associations may spring up, to the incalculable detriment of society at large. As well to prevent the evil to be apprehended, as to check and remedy the evil now existing, The Canadian Freeman is called into being.

During the Session of Parliament, The Canadian Freeman will contain Original Summaries of the Debates, prepared by the Editor, whose former connection with the press, as Writer and Reporter, has fully qualified him for the undertaking. It will also contain pen-and-ink portraits of the leading Members on both sides, fairly and impartially delineated.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
Two Dollars per annum, when paid strictly in advance; or Three Dollars, if paid at the end of the year.

The following gentlemen have been appointed an Executive Committee, for the initiation of the Enterprise; and all responses to this Prospectus, until the appearance of the Paper, may be addressed to them, Box No. 1010, Post Office, Toronto.
