

4. If a tariff cannot be established in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Article, or if during the first fifteen (15) days of the thirty (30) days' period referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article one Contracting Party gives the other Contracting Party notice of its dissatisfaction with any tariff submitted in accordance therewith, the Aeronautical Authorities of the Contracting Parties shall try to determine the tariff by agreement between themselves.

5. If the Aeronautical Authorities cannot agree upon such tariffs the dispute shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of Article 17 of this Agreement.

6. No tariff shall come into force unless it has been approved or accepted by the Aeronautical Authorities of both Contracting Parties.

7. The tariffs established in accordance with the provisions of this Article shall remain in force until new tariffs have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article. Nevertheless, a tariff shall not be prolonged by virtue of this paragraph for more than twelve (12) months after the date on which it otherwise would have expired.

ARTICLE 13

Each Contracting Party shall on the basis of reciprocity permit the designated airline or airlines of the other Contracting Party to remit to their Head Offices in the currency of their own country at the official rate of exchange the funds obtained by each in the normal course of its operations subject only to the respective foreign currency regulations applicable to all countries in like circumstances, for the purpose of safeguarding the external financial position and balance of payments, and shall not be subject to any charges except those normally collected by banks for such operations.

ARTICLE 14

Each Contracting Party shall, on the basis of reciprocity, exempt from income tax and all other taxes on income imposed by it, all income derived from the operation of transportation services as an air carrier by airlines resident for income tax purposes in the territory of that other Contracting Party.

ARTICLE 15

Either Contracting Party may at any time request consultations with the appropriate authorities of the other Contracting Party on questions concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement. Unless otherwise agreed by the Contracting Parties, such consultations shall begin within a period of sixty (60) days from the date the other Contracting Party receives the request.

ARTICLE 16

If either of the Contracting Parties considers it desirable to modify any provisions of this Agreement, it may request consultations with the other Contracting Party. Such consultations, which may be between Aeronautical Authorities and which may be through discussion or by correspondence, shall begin within a period of sixty (60) days from the date of the request. Any modification agreed pursuant to such consultations shall come into force when it has been confirmed by an exchange of diplomatic notes.
