

QUEBEC

Press Room and Quebec Committee

The press office in the Terrace Room of the Château Frontenac will be equipped with releases, typewriters, telephones and telegraphic outlets. Mme Alberte Senecal of the Information Division of the Federal Department of Health and Welfare will supervise a bilingual staff drawn from both the Ottawa central committee and the Quebec regional committee. The latter is composed of Mr. Brian Upton, correspondent of the Montreal Star and President of the Quebec Press Gallery, Mr. G. Loiselle of C.B.C., Quebec, Mr. Gustave Bédard of the Quebec Tourist Bureau, and Mr. Denis Paré, Press Secretary to provincial Prime Minister Lesage.

Transportation

Buses will be provided for transport within the city and will leave for the various events from the Château Frontenac at appointed times to be announced in the Press Room and at briefings.

Accreditation

Both photographic lapel buttons and wallet card credentials should be carried at all times. Should last minute accreditation be necessary, please consult M. G. Perry, Accreditation Officer at the Press Room.

Accommodation

Those members of the press who have previously been unable to acquire accommodation should consult Mr. Brian Upton of the Quebec Press Committee at the Press Room.
