

REGIONAL ISSUES

Russia

- Despite resistance, President Putin is apparently quite determined to push ahead with reform in Russia, especially in the economic sector.
- In the area of technical assistance, we are continuing to focus on helping Russia join the World Trade Organization.
- We must also continue our bilateral efforts to promote development of our trade relations with Russia.