BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Baldwin: Before Your Honour sees the clock approaching six, I should like to ask the government House leader what he proposes to put before us tomorrow.

Mr. Sharp: Mr. Speaker, I should like to put as the first order of business tomorrow the amendments to the Farm Credit Act, Bill C-34. If we dispose of that we might get back to Bill C-13.

At 5.54 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
