man and as a responsible person. He refused, Mr. Speaker. I find it rather amusing when I hear a Liberal talk about democracy. It is amusing, Mr. Speaker, because I have to remind him that when the Constitution was patriated, some people were left out. But I will put that aside for the time being.

[English]

Mr. Hopkins: Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of order. The Hon. Member has just restated the very words that I told him were incorrect in the first place. Only the Leaders of the two opposition Parties were offered briefings on this agreement, not members of the Parties, and those two Leaders were told not to say anything about it. They were offered briefings only if they did not say anything about it.

[Translation]

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Order, please. It being 5.45 p.m., it is my duty, pursuant to Standing Order 82(10) to interrupt the proceedings and to put forthwith every question necessary to dispose of the supply proceedings now before the House.

[English]

The question is on the motion standing in the name of the Hon. Member for Oshawa (Mr. Broadbent). All those in favour of the motion will please say yea.

Some Hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: All those opposed will please say nay.

Some Hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five Members having risen:

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Call in the Members.

The House divided on the motion (Mr. Broadbent), which was negated on the following division:
