

In conclusion: let us feel thankful for that Word of Life which has been committed to our trust; which, while it can claim the homage of the most profound scholars, because it is a revelation from God, is yet so simple in its language that the most unlettered person can understand all that is needful for salvation. And when men who are the greatest scholars bow with profound reverence as they approach this temple of heavenly wisdom, it becomes those of humbler attainments to pause before rejecting in a spirit of incredulity what is manifestly a revelation from God. "Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; to Him be glory both now and forever. Amen."
