

Malicious injuries to property—an act for .....	Page 135
Machines—destroying .....	136
Malice at the owner not essential to any offence, .....	134
Money—pardon for non-payment of .....	138
Money—fines to be in current .....	142
Murder—petit treason to be treated as .....	143
Murder—punishment of principals and accessories in .....	ib.
Murder—sentence in case of .....	144
Murderers under sentence—prison regulations as to .....	ib.
Murder and manslaughter—the trial of .....	ib.
Manslaughter—punishment of .....	145
Murder—punishment with intent to .....	146
Maiming—punishment for .....	ib.
Obtaining money under false pretences, .....	99
Offender in certain cases—the Justice may discharge the .....	131
Offender—Magistrate may discharge .....	141
Persons confessing, or outlawed, .....	79
Provisions to apply to Justices and Coroners, .....	103
Prisoners entitled to copies of depositions, .....	104
Persons under trial may inspect all depositions, .....	105
Prisoner's Lands—Jury shall not inquire of .....	106
Pardon—effects of free or conditional .....	120
Persons—compelling the appearance of .....	136
Pay—if a person summarily convicted shall not, .....	137
Person—act amending the statutes relative to offences against the .....	143
Poison, &c.—punishment for administering .....	145
Punishment—an act for better proportioning .....	158
Penitentiary, instead of transportation .....	160
Quarter Sessions—appeal against .....	153
Rescuing persons, .....	74
Rape, .....	75
Robbery, .....	ib.
Riot act recited, .....	76
Rioters to disperse—proclamation for .....	78
Records—stealing of .....	95
Receivers of stolen property, .....	130
Receivers punished in same manner, .....	ib.
Royal Prerogative—not to affect the .....	113
Recognizances, in certain cases, .....	120