

REVOLUTION, some of the causes of	452
REVOLUTIONARY WAR, defensive; in support of civil rights and liberties long enjoyed	8 193
“ “ justified and supported by the clergy	10
“ “ number of regiments in 1775	134
“ “ supported by young men of education, 44	133
“ “ some of the battles of	267
“ “ leaders in, prudent and learned, as well as zealous	145 193
“ “ eminent patriots of, forgotten	188 430
RELIGIOUS toleration, remarks of Gov. Haynes to Roger Williams	224
RIGHTS of the Colonies	304
RIOTS and mobs, few in Boston, in 1774 and 1775	292
ROBINSON'S church, in England, Holland, &c.	75
“ character	76
REVIEW, North American	401
ROYAL SOCIETY of London, members of	72 79
ROGERS, Ezekiel and Nathaniel, relatives but not brothers	356
RUMFORD, Count, a friend and fellow student of Laomi Baldwin	47
SALEM Church the second in New England	353
SALTONSTALL, Governor of Connecticut, chosen while an ordained minister	12
SCITUATE early settled	408
SLAVERY in North West territory guarded against by Mr. Dane	130
“ early condemned	173
SURGEONS in the army of the Revolution	423
TEA DESTROYED in Boston harbor	291 292
THEOLOGY, dogmatic or systematic, as well as scholastic and metaphysical, often injurious, and seldom necessary	164 177
“ disputes in	399
TOLERATION	117 224
TRUMBULL and Hutchinson, governors, classmates, but of opposite politics	397
UNITARIAN Church, an early one	194
WHITFIELD, Rev. George, opposed by most of the clergy in Massachusetts, at his first visit	167
“ on his first visit, very censorious	167 431
WITCHCRAFT in Massachusetts	360