Live Stock Entries Surpassed Those of Former Exhibitions - Other Features.

Special to The Toronto World.

GALT, Ont., Oct. 2.-With ideal ather to favor the event, about 4000 cople attended the second day of the unual fall fair of the South Waterloo Agricultural Society this afternoon in Dickson Park. Live stock entries exceeded former years and the cattle classes developed specially keen com-petition. In the ring all the classes brought a large entry list, the farmers showing considerable interest in the events for drivers and agricultura horses. A baby show proved an in-teresting feature of the program, 43 competing for the prizes. Speeding events added excitement to the afternoon's proceedings.

J. Lockle Wilson, superintendent of fairs, was among the visitors and ex-pressed himself as well satisfied with the Galt show, stating that the quality of the entries was above the aver ge. F. C. Hart of the co-operative
