

14	Mrs. Ramsay,	Cheshire,	A widow with two young children, a great distress.	J. Musson, R. Symes.	0	5	0	{ Rev. Dr. Mackie, Rev. } { A. W. Mountain. } { R. Symes, J. Musson. }
15	Wm. Davidson,	Middlesex,	Came to Quebec to meet a relative, but was disappointed, to enable him to return to his friends in C. West.	C. Poston, H. W. Welch.	1	10	0	{ Dr. J. A. Sewell, H. W. } { Welch. }
16	John Chevelin,	Surry,	Lately arrived by the Ava from Southampton, to purchase provisions.	Rev. Dr. Mackie, J. Musson.	0	12	6	{ Rev. Dr. Mackie, J. Symes. }
17	Catherine Horton,	Surry,	Lately arrived in the Ava, to pay for lodgings till she got into service.	E. P. Mackie, R. Symes.	4	1	0	{ Rev. A. W. Mountain, H. } { W. Welch. }
18	Thomas Clay,	Lincolnshire,	A painter, came to Quebec from Toronto, to pay his lodgings.	J. Musson, R. Symes.	0	5	0	{ J. Musson, R. Symes. }
19	H. W. Morrison,	Hertfordshire,	Lately a resident at Toronto, came to Quebec with his wife, to procure a passage to England, to purchase provisions, &c.	C. Poston, H. W. Welch.	1	10	0	{ Dr. J. A. Sewell, H. W. } { Welch. }
20	W. Westlake,	Lincolnshire,	A Seaman requiring temporary relief.	Rev. Dr. Mackie, J. Musson.	0	10	0	{ Rev. Dr. Mackie, J. Symes. }
21	Thomas Clay,	Gloucestershire,	See case No. 18.	E. P. Mackie, R. Symes.	4	1	0	{ Rev. A. W. Mountain, H. } { W. Welch. }
22	Anne Taylor,	Gloucestershire,	A poor woman in distress, and a stranger.	J. Musson, R. Symes.	0	15	0	{ J. Musson, R. Symes. }
23	John Bradshaw,	Gloucestershire,	A farmer in delicate health, had seen happier days, emigrated to Canada in hopes of bettering his condition, but was compelled to return home from ill health.	R. Symes, J. Musson.	0	10	0	{ R. Symes, J. Musson. }
24	E. Matthias,	Kent,	See case No. 7, to enable himself and family, to proceed to Upper Canada.	J. Musson, W. Meyer.	2	0	0	{ J. Musson, W. Meyer. }
25	Thomas Hudson,	Cumberland,	Came from Toronto to proceed to England, being short of means, to pay his lodgings, &c.	{ Rev. Dr. Mackie, Dr. J. } { A. Sewell. }	3	0	0	{ H. W. Welch, Rev. Dr. } { Mackie. }
26	Thomas Jerrard,	Lancashire,	A weaver by trade, to assist himself and family to proceed upwards.	R. Symes, J. Musson.	0	10	0	{ R. Symes, C. Poston. }
27	John Peak,	Hertfordshire,	An old man returning to his friends in England, towards comforts for the voyage.	J. Musson, W. Meyer.	2	0	0	{ W. Meyer, J. Musson. }
28	Martha Harrison,	Lincolnshire,	An emigrant, lost on the passage and at Grosse Isle her husband and two children, to assist her to join her friends in Canada West.	{ Rev. Dr. Mackie, Dr. J. } { A. Sewell. }	3	0	0	{ H. W. Welch, Rev. Dr. } { Mackie. }
29	Theodore Hoyle,	Yorkshire,	Additional aid in consideration of his great infirmity.	R. Symes, J. Musson.	5	0	0	{ R. Symes, J. Musson. }
30	J. Potts and wife,	Hertfordshire,	An old man 75 years of age, has friends in England, and a passage provided, to pay for his lodgings.	W. Meyer, J. Musson.	0	5	0	{ Rev. Dr. Mackie, Dr. J. } { A. Sewell. }
31	John Lewis,	Middlesex,	A shoemaker by trade, suffers from weak eyes, his wife an invalid, and five small children, for passages to Canada West.	R. Symes, H. W. Welch.	0	15	0	{ R. Symes, H. W. Welch. }
32	Charles Ernsden,	Somersetshire,	An emigrant lately discharged from Hospital, to pay lodgings and food till he can procure work.	{ Rev. Dr. Mackie, E. P. } { Mackie. }	3	0	3	{ Rev. Dr. Mackie, E. P. } { Mackie. }
33	Henry Perkins,	Cornwal,	A seaman left in hospital, and discharged in winter, he required warm clothing.	J. Musson, R. Symes.	2	5	0	{ J. Musson, R. Symes. }
34	Joseph Coats,	Hertfordshire,	See case No. 19, additional sum having been advanced by the Rev. Mr. Geggie, the Board refunded the amount.	{ Rev. Dr. Mackie, Dr. J. } { A. Sewell. }	3	0	0	{ Rev. Dr. Mackie, Dr. J. } { A. Sewell. }
35	H. W. Morrison,	Hertfordshire,		R. Symes, H. W. Welch.	0	15	0	{ R. Symes, H. W. Welch. }
36				{ Rev. Dr. Mackie, E. P. } { Mackie. }	3	0	3	{ Rev. Dr. Mackie, E. P. } { Mackie. }
37					2	5	0	{ J. Musson, R. Symes. }
38					0	5	0	{ R. Symes, J. Musson. }
39					£66	3	9

NOTE. { No. 25.—The applicant being found to be an imposter, rejected.
 { No. 35.—Being a young man in good health and perfectly capable of earning his livelihood, refused.