A neat bit of proverbial philosophy said to be of Japanese origin, is "Be like the tree which covers with flowers the hand that shakes it."

Sixteen million children were found to be enrolled in the schools of this country in June of this year.

We never know the true value of friends. While they live we are too sensitive to their faults; when we have lost them we see only their virtues.

Do not judge a man by the clothes he wears. God made one and the tailor the other. Do not judge him by his family, for Cain belonged to a good family.

Each Malagasy noble has a dye color of his own, which nobody else is allowed to wear.

The island of Ceylon produces a tree that is without bark. The leaves are perfectly square and fold up at sundown.

Fringe tail fish, which are cultivated in Japan, sell for $100 apiece. Many such fish are found in the aquariums of wealthy New York families.

Old Grumps—Sure that girl loves you instead of your money? Son—Absolutely. Why, she actually keeps count of the kisses I give her. Old Grumps—That's bad. She may keep it up after marriage.
