

REVELATION, CHAP. X.

Q. How does this chapter symbolize Jesus Christ?

A. He holds in His hand the last scroll of the opened book, and He speaks as the Lion of the tribe of Judah.

Q. "That there should be time no longer;" how should these words be translated?

A. "The time (for fulfilling these mysteries of God) is not yet."

Q. What was the little book in the Angel's hand?

A. The yet unfulfilled portion of the opened volume.

Q. Where does St. Paul refer to the Seventh Trumpet?

A. In 1st Cor. xv., 52; at the last trump.

Q. What period of time does the Seventh Trumpet comprise?

A. It coincides in time with the Seven Vials, just as the Seventh Seal comprised the Seven Trumpets.

Q. What results from this remarkable arrangement?

A. That the Seventh Seal, Trumpet, and Vial terminate together.

Q. What is signified by "eating" the little book?

A. Careful meditation upon it.—Jer. xv., 16.

Q. And what by the terms "sweet" and "bitter"?

A. That some of the predictions would be joyous; others distressing.
