

may make it as complete an offering of loyal affection as a gift of a million.

9. Because professors and instructors of Dalhousie, who are her core and life, are working today on a salary scale which is entirely inadequate to supply their needs. This means not only that they are subjected to hardship and hampered in their work, but that the abler young men are deterred from going into the teaching profession and becoming the professors and instructors who will be her core and life. It will take $300,000 to provide $15,000 to $18,000 annually to increase the present professors' salaries even 30 per cent. above those paid in pre-war days.

10. Because money given to Dalhousie is administered as a trust by highly trained specialists in whatever department the money is allocated. A yearly budget is made up and goes through the President's office and the Board of Governors. The money is spent as allocated, by experts in the various departments.

11. Because additional class room accommodation is urgently needed to properly teach the students in attendance.

12. Because Dormitories for Boys and Girls are urgently needed to comfortably house the students who by reason of the lack of adequate houses in Halifax are in many instances, very badly accommodated.

13. Because the Maritime Provinces admittedly provide the best student material on the average and there is an added duty to give these students an opportunity to hold their own in competition with the students of other and larger provinces by the pro-
