NURSING-AT-HOME. ny Interesting Facts Told Yesterday of

the Good Work Being Done

An estimable work is being carried on at Nursing-at-Home Mission, 76 Hayteret. In a very quiet way and without ruding its needs upon the public, this ion has been quietly working and de-

To spend money and sympathy in foreign clds when the heathenish poor and sick of ne's own town and country are crying or help, both physical and moral, appears, o say the least, an unwise proceeding. The regular monthly meeting of the mission was held yesterday, Mrs. Brodie preciding. The superintendent reported 34 palents during the month, 2 of whom died. The nurses paid 320 visits. Much more ickness was met with than during the same nonth last year and many special cases of serious character were observed. Mrs. Hunter Brown reported that over he Don a family was discovered where the ather was out of work, the mother ill and 14-month-old child starving to death. Another case was of a white woman maried to a colored man who claims to be an old slave converted by the S.A. The wife as serious trouble, the doctor says, the result of strong drink. She is an old patient of the mission dispensary, but recently was sent to the General Hospital. Mrs. Stayner also reported. An interesting address was given by Miss stayner, who is at home on furlough from he China Inland Mission. She was fornerly connected with the Nursing-at-Home dission and observed the great benefit derived from such a course of training, the medical nurses accomplishing such a good work in the field.

It Was Over After Midnight.

E. A. Macdonald's action against the appointment of Robert J. Fleming by the City Council, as Assessment Commissioner, was resumed. Lawyer Bradford and Fullerton arrived soon afterwards, as well as E. A. Macdonald and Assessment Commissioner Fleming.

"Who said I refused to attend for examination?" asked Mayor Shaw, as he stock a chair next to the examiner Mr.

There was here a long discussion, Mr. White received $6 a day—does that represent what his services are worth?

There was here a long discussion, Mr. White said he would not take the position at $5000 a year. He or no answer to his question.

Mr. Fullerton interposed that the examination was becoming irregular. The objection was not heeded.

"What efforts did you make to secure the best man for the position of Assessment Commissioner while Mayor?"

Mr. Macdonald wanting to have a yes or no answer to his question.

Mr. Heming: I met some representative and discussed terms with them. They asked ne would I take $4000.

They asked me would I take $4000.

Mr. White said he would not take the position at $5000 a year. He was a law student and does other work. He would not take the position at $5000 a year. He was a law student and does other work. Yes,
You will give the same service for $4000 as for $5000?
Then there was another wrangle.
Mr. Macdonald: What events led up to the appointment of the committee?
A resolution in Council.
Mr. Macdonald then read part of His Worship's address, published in The World of July 27, and asked if Mr. Fleming was Mayor at the time, and the question was an important one. He then asked if he had no called upon Ald. Carlyle and discussed the matter with him.
I don't remember having discussed the question with Mr. Carlyle at his house.
You and Ald. Carlyle have been at variance for some time, have you not?
Oh, just a little coolness!
What brought about the warmness?
Oh, Mr. Carlyle got repentant, I suppose!

there was a general public desire that I should take the position, he said. Yet, after two weeks' campaigning you only got it by two votes, retorted Macdonald. Fleming: I don't think that re-ited the true feelings of the Com-

Did you say you wouldn't take $4000?

That was your decision, and it could not be altered? Did you tell Ald. Leslie or Ald. Burns that?

I spoke to them about it, I guess.

You took all you could get?

No, I did not. I believe I could have got more at that meeting.

Did you not say that you would be a child to resign your position until you knew where you stood?

My impression is that I said that some people must thank that I was a child. The newspapers were calling upon me to resign my position.

The World and Globe said so.
I never added until I knew where I shood.

Mr. Macdonald asked several questions pertaining to the previous examination and Mr. Fullerton objected, stering that the tactics were not an examination for discovery, but an aftenuity to tangle up witness with his previous answers.

No, I did not. I believe I could have got more at that meeting.

Does that describe the situation at that date, July 26?

Mr. Fullerton objected and Mr. Fleming refused to answer, with all due responsible for a judge.

Mr. Fleming: My statement to the Council at that time shows my position then.

You had better ask the aldermen.

You had been an applicant?

Mr. Fleming cited various ways in which he could have used influence. He said he was offered the position when he was not an alderman.

Were you not offered that appointment of the position when he was not an alderman.

Running Night and Day.

The first clean up of the mill run at Saw Bill will be made Oct. 15, and until that time nothing definite can be known as to the amount of bullion produced. Indications are that the returns will be thoroughly satisfactory to the shareholders. Every effort is being made to make up for previous delays, and the mill is running night and day and in perfect order. The second clean up will be made on Oct. 30, so that two good gold bricks will be on hand before the general meeting of the shareholders early in November.

Merry people.

A merry disposition with sound "common sense" makes the plainest person attractive. No better inspiration to mod est merriment than a happy singing canary. No equal to Cottams Seed with patent Bird Bread for keeping it in health and song. [108] finds are being mad; but up to the present have been kept almost a secret.

The following from Telegram, Monday, 27th, reads thus:

"The next mining excitement will be on the Peace River, in the Northwest Territory. Mining has been carried on there in a slow way for years, but discoveries made there this summer leave no room to doubt that an enormous amount of gold will be taken out of the Peace River and its tributaries during the next few years, says The Nelson Miner.

"Men who are now taking out gold in large quantities are not trying to create a boom, but are quietly sending for their friends to come into the country and secure claims. A young man named Johnson recently came down from Peace River with his partner, bringing $18,000 in gold dust. This $18,000 brought out had been cleaned up by three men in three months. It is reported that more than two hundred men are placer mining along Peace River at the present time, and experiencing good results."
