"When I first commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicines," writes Mrs. George A. Strong, of Gansevoort, Saratoga Co., N. Y., "I was suffering from female weakness, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pains, weak and tired feeling all the time. I dragged around in that way for two years, and I began taking your medicine. After taking first bottle I began to feel better. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, two of "Golden Medical Discovery," one vial of the 'Pleasant Pellets,' also used one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Now I feel like a new person. I can't thank you enough for your kind advice and the good your medicine has done me."

The present plan is confessedly a failure, for while it can furnish men enough to meet the first shock of war it could not stand the drains of heavy losses. These efforts have a particular interest for this country, in view of the naval militias that are to be retained for harbor and coast defence.

The leading British expert, Lord Brassey, advocates the enrolment and training of of whom are to be fitted for engine and fire room work. He favors scholarships under naval control wherein apprentices, are to be trained and then passed into the regular reserve. The number of such vessel is gradually to reach one hundred each equipped for two hundred boys.

To secure the officers this authority proposes the payment of subsidies to such ship owners as may agree to train mates and engineers willing to enter the royal reserve. The estimated cost of the whole establishment at its maximum is $10,000,000 an unally. This proposition seems the most practical yet advanced, and it will probably not be antagonistic to the British temperament and traditions. The general scheme
