THE COMPANIES MARCH TO THE POSSUM EXHIBITION.

It was very lucky that Bobby Skunk drilled his Company so well, for every soldier was marching now towards the Possum kindergarten, and all were hungry after marching. And they would have a terrible temptation to eat Possum meat.

Teddy Possum had gotten all his family out to the Kindergarten, among the white birches, and they were all practicing their lessons, and playing their games in the dancing moonlight.

Teddy Possum was awfully excited, and he was running about to see that all plans and heard Redhead, the Woodbut when Teddy Possum heard the Frog music, and heard Redhead, the Woodbut when Teddy Possum heard the Frog Band, but it was hard for them to keep step, because some took long music, and heard Redhead, the Woodbut when he heard the footsteps of the Company marching, he couldn't stand when he heard the footsteps of the Company marching, he couldn't stand when he heard the footsteps of the Company marching, he couldn't stand when he received worse trying to keep step with the Frog march was a sort of hop-skip-and-a-jump, but they got there.

And another comical sight was to see another strange company march.

see another strange company marching to see the Show. Grandpa Turtle, who was over 100 years old, was the drum-major; and how proud he looked as he led his company of Turtle troops! And each Turtle had his Knapsack on his back. Indeed, his Knapsack was bigger than he was. For, you know that a Turtle is a splendid soldier, and he is always armed to the teeth, with a full suit of strong armor. And each Turtle was a famous Tank, also. And when all the Tanks arrived. Teddy Possum was ready to start the Show. It was awfully funny to see those three Companies of Soldiers watch each other. Some thought that Bobby Skunk's Company was the best drilled. Others said that Mr. Frog had the best band music, but all admitted that Grandpa Turtle's troops had the finest armor. They looked like Knights of King Arthur's Round Table.

FORECAST

This will be the way of it, You shall have the say of it. There will be a garden green There will be some rooms with chintz And a few well-chosen prints. There will be some chairs as kind As are verses to the mind.

There will be whole shelves of books,
And a tree for wrens and rooks,
And for leaves to wink their warning.

Through our window in the morning. and the sea somewhere below Whispering soft and sad and slow, And a road for tinkers carts Traveling from foreign parts. I shall have a pipe to smoke As I sit beneath our oak,
And your fingers will be busy
With the stitch that makes me dizzy,
And the children will be chubby,
Just as then—and just as grubby;
For it's hard to keep them tubby
If you wish them as they are.
And at night we'll see our star—
Yes our news propuler. Burning silver in the heavens
On a world released from war.
Yes, I know that's far, so far;
But that will be the way of it,
And you shall have the say of it!
