ST. THOMAS, March 31 .- An interesting event occurred this afternoon at the home of George Smith, Wellington street, when his fellow shopmen of the Michigan Central Railway blacksmithing department, gathered to bid him farewell after his service of seventeen years in the local shops as a blacksmith. Mr. Smith is now 70 years of age and was today superannuated with pension. The employees of the shops escorted Mr. Smith from his work to his home, forming a procession, headed by the M. C. Several selections were then rendered by the band and an address delivered by Mr. ith, who said he was sorry to sever his connections with the shops, but failing eyesight would soon have made it imperative in any case. He bespoke for the band many years of success and wished his fellowmen every success in their work.
