

SATURDAY MORNING

HANDBOOK MEN RAIDED 32 IN POLICE DRAG NET

Successful Coup Executed by Police After Months of Silent Work

Friday the thirteenth! Is it unlucky? Ask 32 alleged handbook makers who were gathered in yesterday noon by an army of detectives in what promises to be the most successful anti-gambling raid yet executed in the city.

After a foundation laid by two months of underground and secret operation the police have made their pounce, and the dragnet is full of overfishing. A list of the fish, big and little, follows:

John and Fred Allison, 20 East Queen-street, barbers, arrested by Detectives Mackay and Little. Alleged keepers. Frank Burroughs, 103-7 Victoria-street. Arrested by Detective Alchibald and Chapman. Alleged keepers. Lawrence Manove, Leslie Hall, same address. Alleged frequenters. Alex. Levinsky, 273 West Queen-street, pool room. Arrested by Detectives Moffatt and Liffey. Alleged keeper.

William Watt, St. Lawrence Market, butcher. Arrested by Detective Newton. Alleged keeper. George Dockerty, 952 East Queen-street, cigar store. Arrested by Detective Cronin. Alleged keeper.

Mr. Mair, 26 1-2 East King-street, tailor, arrested by Detectives McKinnon and McJury. Alleged keepers. Richard A. Savignin and William Clark, tailors, 26 East Adelaide-street. Alleged keepers.

Thos. Johnson, barber, 127 East Queen-street. Arrested by Detective Mitchell and constable. Alleged keeper. Walter Massey, butcher, 375 East Queen-street. Arrested by Detectives Guthrie and Kelly. Alleged keeper.

Henry Perkins, flour and feed store, 1520 East Queen-street. Arrested by Detective Shaw. Real estate office, 95 Victoria-street, arrested by Detectives McKinnon and Sockett. Alleged keepers.

J. J. Honan, grocer, 125 Jarvis-street. Arrested by Detectives Armstrong and Irwin. Alleged keeper. Thomas C. and James Smith, part room, 832 East Queen-street. Arrested by Detective Murray.

George McSweeney, cigar store, 209 Colborne-street. Arrested by Detectives Sockett and Anderson. Alleged keeper. Henry Wingate, clerk, at same address. Gardner Norris, butcher, 106 Shuter-street. Alleged keeper.

Geo. Keen, Chas. Grimdale, Roy McLeod. Arrested at same address as frequenters. M. Clark, 187 Belfair.

W. Luckie, 125 East King. Geo. Munroe, 128 University-avenue. John Greenwood, 1240 East Queen-street, private house. Arrested by Detective Young and Inspector Miller. Alleged keepers.

George Capps, 786 East Queen-street. Arrested by Detective Mahony and constable. Alleged keeper. McCauley, flour and feed store, 932 East Queen-street. Arrested by Detective Montgomery and constable.

William Lackey, fish dealer, 125 East King-street. Arrested by Detectives Tipton and Cathers. Alfred W. Wright, 8 Shuter-street, butcher, arrested by Detective Guthrie.

James Ward, 75 East King-street, bartender, arrested by Detective Geo. Sockett. Inspector of Detectives Duncan directed the strike, and his force of pussy-footed sleuths was supplemented by a squad of police supplied by Staff Inspector Stephen.

Inspector Stephen. The report brought Mrs. Musgrave instantly to the side of her husband, whom she found, standing on the kitchen floor with the smoking revolver still in his hand. The bullet entered his forehead a little above the eye.

The gathering of evidence, which has been underway for two months, was in the hands of James E. Stein of the Thiel Detective Agency, who had a number of operatives making bets with the prospective quarry.

All were evidently baited, and will appear in police court this morning. LICENSE INSPECTOR, CRITICIZED, ATTEMPTS TO END HIS LIFE.

NORTH SYDNEY, N.S., Aug. 13.—Despondent over continued bitter criticisms of his work as license inspector by a local paper, the temperance people and the liquor dealers, C. C. Musgrave late last night attempted to end his life by shooting himself in the head.

The report brought Mrs. Musgrave instantly to the side of her husband, whom she found, standing on the kitchen floor with the smoking revolver still in his hand. The bullet entered his forehead a little above the eye.

B. & O. Will Get It. NEW YORK, N.Y., Aug. 13.—The plea of Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Reorganization Committee, involving the turning of the road over to the Baltimore and Ohio, will shortly be declared operative, according to apparently authentic reports in the financial district here to-day.

A Boy Killed. UNDERWOOD, Aug. 13.—A sad accident occurred near here this morning in which William, the 15-year-old boy of Harry Roppel, was killed. He was leading a horse back to the farm and tried to get on its back and in some way got caught in the harness and was dragged a distance, when it was found that life was extinct.

Capt. John Bridges of the Anchor Line steamer "Italia," died on the voyage over to New York.

The Hosiery Sale Pleases Every One

"I THOUGHT the 'Sales' always meant there was something wrong with the goods," said a customer "but I think these Stockings are just as good as regular stock in all the best stores."

The remark was addressed to a friend, so our saleswoman didn't feel justified in breaking into the conversation to explain that our August Sale Stockings are regular goods as sold at most good stores, and as sold at this store too. We bought them as "Mill Oddsments" but there is nothing odd about them in a retail sense. They are beautiful goods and at the August Sale Prices just Scandalously Cheap.

Household Savings Count up as Quick as any Other Kind

THE Furniture Sale gives housekeepers a semi-annual opportunity to do one of two things. One may save big substantial amounts on household necessities—a new bedroom suite for instance or a set of dining room chairs.

Or one may add a premium to one's original intention and, by the aid of August Furniture Sale Prices, procure a degree of quality otherwise beyond one's means.

Our enlarged Furniture Department is filled with instances. Come in on Monday and see.
