Good Form in Shoes Is Demand-ed By Men and Supplied By Us

The correct styles in Oxfords are surprisingly varied, from the comfortable wide-toe kind to shoes in the long, slim, recede shapes that are comfortable, too, when fitted by our salesmen, with due regard to width and length.

Just as a suggestion, here are a few types of the accepted "lows" for this summer:—

One of the New Chocolates.

Modified recede shape, with Balmoral lace top and low English heel, fashioned to take the foot restfully on a broad sole; made by the Goodyear welt process. Sizes 5½ to 10. Widths A to E. Price 7.00

Black Calf With Neolin Sole.

This is an unusually attractive last, with easy lines, and is cut Balmoral style, with blind eyelets; sole is Goodyear welted, and there's a rubber heel to complete the easy tread. * Sizes 51/2 to 10. Widths C, D and E 6.00

The Last for Tired Feet.

It's a wide toe shape, giving full room for every toe and yet fitting well around instep and ankle; Goodyear

The Note Book Refinement in Silver Tea Services.

It is said that the most beautiful pieces of furniture of the famous English cabinet - maker, Thomas Chippendale, are those he made when the amount of money he was able to spend on them was restricted.

His costly and too highly ornamental works soon lost interest, and now, after a century and a half, it is his simple pieces that are admired.

There is this same classic simplicity in the beautiful Tudor, Old English and Queen Anne Tea Services in our collection of sterling silver which gives them a refinement and just as long as the Tea Sets themselves — and that, with care, should
