

DR. BLANCHARD

THE FAMOUS
SURGEON CHIPODIST

Has been engaged permanently by Mr. W. T. Pember, and now has his office at this store. He painlessly and permanently cures all defects and diseases of the feet. Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, etc. For appointment telephone Main 2275.

Pember's Alteration Sale now on. Ten per cent. off all Hair Goods.

Ladies' Hair arranged in very newest styles—the artistic "English Braid," the "Adrea" Coil, Marcelle Wave, etc.

Electrolysis, Facial Massage and Manicuring a specialty. A large staff of experts in attendance.

PEMBER'S HAIR EMPORIUM, 127-129 YONGE-ST

SOCIAL LIFE

The weather last week was truly ideal, and the weddings and garden parties owed not a little of their charm to the cloudless skies and brilliant sunshine. The performance of "Alice in Wonderland," which took place in the garden of Mrs. George Ridout's house in St. Alban-street on Tuesday evening, was immensely enjoyed by the guests; the play was so pretty and the stillness and exquisite beauty of the still, moonlight atmosphere, with the sweet breath of the flowers, transported one into Fairyland. In the afternoon Mrs. Covert and Mrs. Maclellan, joint hostesses in giving a tea for Miss Hogaboam, who is to be married on the 25th. The table decorations were beautiful pink and white sweet peas, "winged messengers of light," and deep-hued velvety pansies.

Thursday was one of those perfect days which certainly have been rare this June, and the good fairy of our changeable climate must have taken the entertainment given by the Royal Canadian Yacht Club in their island clubhouse, under her special protection, so brilliant was the sunlight, so crystalline the atmosphere, the tiny waves let breaking with a flash of white against the sides of the launch, freighted with pretty girls, clad in all the quaintness of muslin and lace. The scene on arrival was charming, all the yachts gay with bunting, a glory of color against the lower tones of lake and verdure. The new building is in every way an immense improvement on the one destroyed by fire. Verandahs running round three sides, the style is old colonial and the furnishing of the various rooms is in corresponding style. The views from all points are of great beauty. The Queen's Own Band played during the afternoon and Commodore and Mrs. Haas received the guests at the foot of the steps. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Mortimer Clark were attended by Major J. Fraser MacDonald. Although clouds marked the end of the afternoon and there were apprehensions of a storm, they were ill-founded, and the dance in the evening was a splendid success. A great many members dined and the tables were prettily set out with large pink roses, lilacs and ferns. His honor was seated at the top of the table with the commodore—toasts were given and the national anthem sung. After dinner the verandahs were thronged, those who did not dance having no less enjoyment than the young people present.

Yet another wedding of much interest in Toronto took place in St. Paul's Church on Wednesday, when Miss Maude Elizabeth Dwight was married to Mr. Donald Ansley Ross, C.E., younger son of the late Hon. A. W. Ross. The Rev. Canon Cody, D.D., rector, officiating. The decorations of the church were most effective; there is such a wealth of flowers of white and other delicate tints to choose from now. The aisles were transformed by avenues of palms and the seats for the

If you desire something exquisitely fragrant in perfume let me recommend "Ideal"

JUNE CLOVER

A perfume that by its very excellence has, gained the largest sale of any perfume in Canada. See the window of my King-street store for special display during race weeks.

W.H. Lee
KING EDWARD HOTEL
DUNSTON B II

guests marked by bouquets attached to the ends by sashes of white ribbons. The bride wore a gown with long train of rich ivory satin with trimmings of old Limerick lace; her veil was also of lace, being lent by her godmother, Mrs. E. A. Mowat, and it fell in graceful folds from a small coronal of orange blossoms and lily of the valley; her bouquet was a shower of lilies. She was given away by her father. Her maid of honor, Miss Madge Davidson and the bridesmaid, Miss Edith Maclellan, were dressed alike, in painted muslins, pink roses on a white ground, high girdles of pale blue satin. Their picturesque hats were tied with strings of blue chiffon, and they had pink roses tucked under the brim. Their bouquets of pink roses were tied with blue ribbons. The flower girl, little Miss Walker, had a frock of white muslin and lace, hat of the same, and she carried a basket of pink roses. Alan Magee was best man, and the ushers were R. G. Geary, Dr. E. P. Hardy, Dr. D. Mulholl (Minneapolis) and Garnet Chaplin (St. Catharines); all members of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. Mrs. Dwight held a reception at 107 St. George-st. after the ceremony. She wore a costume of mauve and white, the dress of crepe de chine and lace, toque of lilacs and bouquet of the same shade in sweet peas and carnations of diamonds. The house was like a conservatory with its floral ornamentation, the bride and groom receiving in front of a bower of palms, roses, sweet scented peonies and ferns. Mrs. Lyman Dwight (Winnipeg) was there with some 250 other guests. The wedding was a unique one, and an orchestra played during the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Ross left on a wedding trip later in the afternoon, the latter wearing a white homespun with lace, blouse and blue hat. They are to live in Winnipeg, where Mr. Dwight has bought a house for their occupation.

On Thursday afternoon at St. Simon's Church the wedding of Miss Elsie Croft, second daughter of the late William Croft, Oakbank, Rosedale, and John Alexander Tate, manager of the Bank of Toronto, Coldwater, son of Thomas Tate, Montreal, was solemnized by Rev. E. C. Cayley, rector of St. Simon's, and Rev. F. G. Plummer, vicar of St. Augustine's. The bride was gowned in Brussels lace over chiffon, having a cloudy and cool effect, and the design of medallions was edged with wreaths of orange blossoms and the same flowers caught the tulle veil. Her bouquet was of roses and lilies. A. W. Croft, her brother, gave her away. Miss Grace Kent, maid of honor, wore a white organdie, and Miss Roselee Le Junkin, bridesmaid, wore white. The flower girl, Miss Marguerite Martin was flower girl. Mr. Towers, Brockville, was best man, and Dr. C. I. Taylor and H. M. Wylie, ushers. Mrs. A. W. Croft afterwards held a reception at 31 Maple-avenue, her gown being of champagne color of chiffon and lace. The decorations of the house were well carried out, the color scheme being pink and white. An orchestra played in the hall and tea was served in the library, conservatory, and on the wide verandah, thus preventing any crush, a great desideratum on a hot summer day. Mr. and Mrs. Tate left for a trip to the Adirondacks, the bride traveling in a costume of brown taffeta with hat to match.

Rev. G. A. Kuhring and Mrs. Kuhring have left town for their future home in New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Eaton have left England on their way home.

The Bishop of Toronto and Mrs. Sweetman and their daughter have gone to England to spend the summer.

The gaiety at Niagara, which commenced yesterday with the garden party given by the Governor-General's Body Guards, promises to attract an even greater number of visitors than ordinarily to this most fascinating watering place, which, in addition to its beautiful drives, excellent golf links and charming scenery has all the glamor of an historic past. Many weeks can be pleasantly passed lounging on the spacious verandahs of the Queen's watching the canoes and the white-winged yachts gliding past, making silencing ripples on the water, or driving up the lovely river road. The church and churchyard are also most interesting and there is an old world charm about the whole place that tempts one to return again and again. The annual military ball, under the patronage of Gen. Otter, will take place at the Queen's Royal on June 21. The pavilion where they dance is cool, overlooking the water, and has a very good floor.

Mrs. John Cawthra's afternoon party on Thursday was in every way most pleasant, and thoroughly enjoyed by the guests, most of whom knew each other very well. The cool flower-scented drawing-room was delightful, with its pretty old-fashioned chintz coverings, and the hostess, as usual, beautifully dressed in the palest grey chiffon taffeta, with Honiton lace on the bodice. Her sister, Mrs. Perry, from England, was present, and Mrs. Adamson presided over the table in the dining-room, decorated by many tall vases of large pink carnations, arranged in branches of asparagus. Many people drifted out to the circular verandah, a charming retreat, with its deep seated chairs, quite shut off from the street by the trees and shrubs of the lawn.

The lady principal and board of directors of Hecol College have issued a notice of invitation to the annual prize-giving on Thursday, June 22, from 4 until 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Goldwin Smith's garden party will be social event of June 28.

Miss Scott and Miss Merrick, Branksome Hall, will be at home on Tuesday, June 20, from 4-30 to 7 o'clock.

Mrs. George Dickson has issued invitations to an evening at home from 8 o'clock to 11, on Tuesday, June 22.

The Lord Bishop of Ontario and Mrs. Lennox Mills are giving an at home in Kingston on June 22, to meet the delegates to the synod.

The presentation of prizes at St. Margaret's College will take place at 2.30 o'clock on June 22.

The ball at the Royal Military College, Kingston, on June 20 is always much looked forward to, and this year will be no exception. Mrs. Oliver Macklem will preside. Miss Kate Hagar, who has a brother in the college, and Miss Gladys Nordheimer are going down to stay with Mrs. Victor Williams.

The engagement is announced of Miss Margaret McKerracher, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McKerracher of Berkeley-street, to Mr. Wm. G. Chace, B.A. Sc., of Toronto. The wedding will take place on June 28.

Miss Libby Prescott of Huron-street has returned from Montreal, where she attended one of the weddings on the 7th.

A delightful elocution recital was given on Tuesday evening, 13th inst., at the Metropolitan College of Music by Miss Anna Crabtree, pupil of Miss L. Maude Smith. The attractive program included the trial scene, from "The Merchant of Venice," which was executed in a manner which speaks volumes for Miss Crabtree's ability as a reader. Miss Crabtree was assisted in a comedioli entitled "An Amateur Triumph" by Miss M. E. Gillman as the Swedish maid and Mr. Sid Simpson as the Swedish husband and Hebrew theatrical manager. Piano solos were rendered by Miss E. Withall and Miss E. Sanderson.

A most charming entertainment was that provided by Miss C. C. Bowerman and her pupils, assisted by Mrs. A. H. Garrett, soprano, and Miss Elsie Croft, mezzo-soprano, at the home of William McClellan, on Monday evening in the parlors of the Northern Congregational Church. Mrs. Garrett sang delightfully, as did Miss Irene Sauter, a very bright child. Miss Harris' recitations were exceedingly well chosen and delivered with rare expression in one so young. Master Wesley Buchanan contributed a couple of clever pieces. Others who took part were: the Misses Doris and Gwendolyn Hadley, Miss Olive Humphrey, Miss Tessie Good, Miss Mildred Warren, Miss Vera McCrimmon, Miss Lucy Leitch, Miss Cora Finch, Miss Florence Buchanan, Miss Dorothy Farley, Miss Gladys McCrimmon and Miss Allero Leitch. Miss Bowerman herself played with several of her pupils and not the least pleasing feature of an admirable entertainment was the excellent taste displayed in the selection of the program.

Mrs. A. J. Somerville of Atherly is the guest of Mrs. G. Capron Brooke, 346 Jarvis-street.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander W. Wills of Howard-street are spending a few days in New York.

Mr. Clement Pepler and Mr. Haggarty are enjoying a few days' fishing near Listowel.

Col. Merritt and the officers of the Governor-General's Body Guard were fortunate in having almost perfect weather for their garden party at their camp in Niagara on Saturday, for which they had issued between five and six hundred invitations. Having in view that perhaps it is the last camp to be held on the common there was a greater interest than usual in everything around the soldiers and their environment. The white tents surrounding the golf club are most picturesque. Tea was served in a large marquee as well as in the club and the china used by the Body Guard is most effective, white, with the crest of the regiment carrying out their colors, blue and silver, all the uniforms in Canada with this exception having gold. Col. Merritt's ideas are always good and the flowers used as decorations, marguerites and bluettes, made a very harmonious whole. Niagara-on-the-Lake has a charm peculiarly its own, and the number of people there just now is very large. A good many from Toronto have taken cottages for the season and many more at the Queen's Royal.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholls Kenin (Miss Alice Milligan) have returned from their wedding trip and will reside at 112 Yorkville-avenue.

Mrs. A. Loungist, Carlton-street, and Miss Ada Maddox, O'Hara-avenue, left on Thursday for New York and Boston. They will return the end of the month.

Ladies' Tailors and Costumiers

HANDSOME MATERIALS FOR AFTERNOON, DINNER

AND EVENING GOWNS, SMART SUITS and BLOUSES

MILLINERY

The Latest Creations in New Spring Millinery

LACE SCARFS and STOLCS

GLOVES

2-Clasp G'oves in all the new colorings: Evening Gloves Motor Gloves

Ladies' and Gents' Walking Gloves

CORSETS

PARIS KID GLOVE STORE

11 and 13 King Street East, Toronto.

TEL. MAIN 588.

The marriage of Miss Maude A. I. vine, niece of Mr. E. Gouge, to Prof. G. O. ge n. Baker of Fremont, Nebraska, was solemnized on Wednesday at 11 o'clock, in St. Stephen's Church. Rev. J. S. Broughan officiated and Mr. Howard played the wedding marches. A soft music during the service. Pansies and carnations decorated the chancel. J. Ross Stewart was the best man, and George Gould of Oakridge and Albert Murtia of Buffalo were the ushers. The bride was given away by her cousin, Mason T. Golder, and looked very daintily in her wedding gown of madame duchesse satin trimmed with plaidered chiffon and seed pearls; the veil was becomingly arranged and held with orange blossoms, the nover bouquet was of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Edna Davis, wore a pale blue French tulle, a large cream picture hat and carried pink roses. The flower girl, Miss Irene Golder, a cousin, was in a pretty white silk frock, a "granny" to net of white tulle with ties, her flowers were red roses. Mrs. Golder, the bride's aunt, wore black voile and taffeta, a bonnet of black lace and carried red roses. A reception attended by forty guests was held at the residence of M. S. Golder, 211 Markham-street. The house was artistically decorated with tulle of bridal roses, carnations, lilacs and palms. Mr. and Mrs. Baker left by the 3 o'clock boat for Montreal and Ottawa, followed by a trip up the St. Lawrence. They will reside in Fremont, Nebraska. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a turquoise and diamond ring, to the bridesmaid a crescent pearl brooch, to the flower girl a locket and chain, and to the best man and ushers handsome scarf pins. The bride's traveling costume was in shirt waist design of chiffon shot tulle, in rose and green; the toque was of cream straw with green and mauve roses to the side.

At "Castleton Farm," near Brampton, on June 14, a pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of William McClellan, when his eldest daughter, Mary Cathrine, was united in marriage to George C. Reid of Erin. The rooms were decorated with red and white roses, white carnations and white blossoms, all artistically arranged. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Gray Reid of Mount Forest, a brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. James Reid of Erin. The bride, who was given away by her father, was gowned in pearl silk, trimmed with red pearl trimmings, chiffon and lace. She wore a veil with a coquet of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Maggie McClure, a sister of the bride, attired in a gown of pale grey velveteen trimmed with white silk applique and crystals and carrying a bouquet of pink roses, attended the bride. The best man was Rev. J. E. Reid of Toronto, a brother of the groom. The cute little flower girl, Annie Catton, a cousin of the bride, carrying a basket of cream and white roses, in which was placed the wedding ring, was prettily dressed in white china silk, trimmed with valencienne lace and insertion. The bride's gift to the groom was a handsomely initialed gold locket. The groom's gifts consisted of a pearl crescent brooch to the bride, a ruby ring (being her birthday stone) to the bridesmaid, and an opal ring to the sweet little flower girl. A room reserved for the purpose displayed a large array of costly and useful gifts. Among these were noticed a cheque for $1000 dollars from the bride's father and mother, and a cheque for $100 from Mrs. McGill, an aunt of the bride. The bride and groom left on the 9.07 train, amid heartiest congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends, for Toronto, Niagara Falls and other points of interest. Among the many guests were noticed friends from New York, Toronto, Mount Forest, etc.

A pretty wedding was celebrated in

BAKER, LADIES' TAILOR.

Ladies' Afternoon Costumes.

16 Charles Street.

Phone North 1431

Wedding Gifts

English Breakfast Dishes, Entree Dishes and General Tableware

At the Jewelry Parlors.

JAMES D. BAILEY,

75 Yonge (N. E. cor. King)

SUMMER RESORTS.

The Penetanguishene

(ON GEORGIAN BAY)

CANADA'S SUMMER RESORT

Renovated From Top to Bottom

BRAND NEW THIS SUMMER

New Silver, Linen, China and

Other Equipments.

Fishing, Boating, Bathing, Bowling,

Golf, Tennis, Orchestra

Write for illustrated booklet.

Woodgreen Methodist Tabernacle on Wednesday, June 7, when Miss Sadie E. Sharp, second daughter of George A. Sharp, was united in marriage to James M. Davie of the Manufacturers' Life. Rev. Isaac Couch officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a becoming gown of white silk eolienne over taffeta, with chiffon and pearl trimmings, and bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shawl of bride's roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Evelyn Sharp, and Miss Katherine Ingle. The former was gowned in white silk crepe de Paris over taffeta with large pink Dutch bonnet, and the latter wore a black silk eolienne over taffeta and large blue bonnets, both carrying large bouquets of pink carnations. The groom was attended by A. J. Hess, Messrs. George Sharp and Thomas Dobbie, brother and brother-in-law of the bride, acting as ushers. The bride's mother wore a black silk eolienne over taffeta and pale blue tulle hat with touches of black. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful sunburst of pearls; to the bridesmaids pearl wedding bells, and to the groomsmen a pearl scarf pin. The wedding

Continued on Page 21.

JUNE WEDDINGS!

We Make a Specialty of Wedding Trousseaus.

Our materials, Laces and Robes are Direct Importations, confined to us and made specially for our trade. Our models are entirely exclusive and come to us direct from the seat of fashion, which, together with our own designs, enables us to produce garments and millinery which are the essence of style and which cannot be duplicated.

BRAYLEY & CO.,

MILLINERS AND COSTUMIERS,

460 SPADINA AVENUE.

Phone Main 2473.

"We Take"

HORSES ENJOY WHEN

Often Very Different From

'I B

Horses from nearly every life are in the long rows that removed from a peaceful the hardworking routine to become two weeks the care of the hired them for the glory of a life. Some of them are saddled against their will and seem to stay that way. Others work up military work to far better take if the men that rode the a little more about it. The a volunteer cavalry brigade large degree creatures of circumstance. Many of the troopers are equ once a year, and that at the camp. If they cannot borrow they hire one. Few of them boast of their own and their the greatest difficulties the constructors have to deal with. ten difficult for some troopers suade anyone to let them have. When they have had one at camps the horse perhaps w and didn't want to work at after serving in the squad get nicely broke in by about for going home.

In Another Sphere A horse that belongs to the v dertaker and is brought to cause he has such a fine looking looks well in the group ph does not at first take kindly tary life. Being tethered in camp among a lot of brother ter equines who are similarly fa far different to standing the house of mourning, and children pet him on the nose

Waiters of t