DEPOSIT SEVEN THOUSAND

School Children Place That Amount in Penny Bank in One Day.

As an indication of the extent to which the pay-roll of the people of Toronto has grown, and as a further indication of what the recipients are doing with the money, it is worth noticing that on the first weekly deposit day at the public schools of Toronto the children deposited $7240.74. The corresponding day last year produced $8260.06, and in 1915 $8307.16.

Every cent of these deposits goes at once to the credit of the government at

TWO MEATLESS DAYS FOR

Toronto, May 14—In view of the need for increased production and greater economy in the home, the executive of the O. O. F. E. has decided to issue an appeal to all members of the order to observe two meatless days a week, Wednesday and Friday, and two potatoes days, and to abstain from the use of real and young lamb.
