MARTIN-SENOUR 100% Pure Paint

The Protection of Purity

A PAINT resists the destructive action of sun, wind and rain in proportion to its purity. The protective coating to best withstand weather and wear is Martin-Senour 100% Pure Paint, which is guaranteed to be absolutely pure. Pure White Lead and Pure Zinc Oxide are combined in proportions that exhaustive tests have shown to produce the most efficient pigment. With pure high grade, filtered linseed oil (bleached for white paint) this pigment forms the most durable paint made. The tough elastic film does not crack or scale because Martin-Senour 100% Pure Paint contains no weakening adulterations.

FRED. W. KELLY ACQUITTED IN COUNTY COURT

Jury Only Ten Minutes in Reaching Their Verdict

MAKE COMMENT IN STATING FINDING

Express Opinion Case Should Not Have Been Brought to Court

In the County Court this morning the jury in the case of the King vs. Fred W. Kelly, Leinster street, charged with assault occasioning bodily harm, returned a verdict of "not guilty," and he was discharged. The jury retired at 1 o'clock to consider the evidence and returned to the courtroom in ten minutes to announce, through their foreman, John Burgoyne, that they found Mr. Kelly not guilty, and stated that in their opinion the case should never have been brought before the court, occasioning the municipality trouble and expense.

JUDGE COMMENTS

Judge J. A. Barry commented on the jury for their action in reaching the verdict, and pointed out that it would be a good thing for the administration of justice in all cases if juries would see fit to remark on the case before them.

Trial of the matter was commenced this morning and evidence similar to that given at the preliminary hearing was adduced. H. O. Evans, Patrick Morley and Dr. C. G. Malcom testified for the Crown and Fred W. Kelly, Urban Kelly, Edwin Kelly and John V. Brown for the defence.

The following comprised the jury: John Burgoyne, G. Anglin, Gorman, B. Farmer, T. G. Drake, Bruce W. Erb, W. E. Craft, A. F. Cassidy, J. S. Baur, Fred Kne, W. M. Barlow, Cecil M. Alexander and C. C. Brown. J. Starr Tait appeared for the Crown and E. J. Hennessey and W. A. Ross for the defence.

YOUTH FINED $8 AND LOSES .22 RIFLE

Charles Marsters Dealt With For Shooting at Tin Can in East End Grounds

Charles Marsters was arrested by Police Officer John Sheehan on a charge of discharging firearms within the city limits. In the Police Court this morning the policeman gave evidence that the boy was firing a .22 calibre rifle at tin cans in the East End grounds. He pleaded guilty and was fined $8 and also forfeited the gun.

ESTATE $15,232

Will of John F. Leonard is Admitted to Probate Court

The will of the late John F. Leonard has been admitted to probate before Judge H. O. McInerney. It disposes of an estate consisting entirely of personal property valued at $15,232.00. The bulk of the estate, after certain family bequests were made, was left to W. R. Leonard, brother of the testator. W. R. Leonard, W. W. Leonard and F. Leonard were appointed executors and trustees. C. H. Ferguson was proctor.

Miss Vivien McIntyre Honored At Shower

Forty-five lady members of the operating staff of the New Brunswick Telephone Company assembled last evening at the home of Mrs. Gordon Williams, Durham street, and tendered a novelty shower to Miss Vivien McIntyre, one of their associates. Miss McIntyre, a principal in a happy event. The drawing rooms were effectively decorated with sweet peas and ferns. An umbrella with white trimmings and streamers and containing gifts of silver, cut glass and linen, was presented to the guest of honor. Miss Edna Dever assisted Miss McIntyre in opening the parcels and in reading the original verses which each contained. A pleasant evening was spent in games and music. Dainty refreshments were served and Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Kenneth Ryder and Miss Nellie McKinnon, assisted in serving. The merry party broke up about midnight.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Among those present were Mrs. Mackin, Lillian Guldrey, Genevieve Guldrey, Helen Lawless, Mary Stanton, Dorothy Stanton, Zita McCaskill, Helen Nugent, Florence Nugent, Edna McCaskill, Hilda Macdonald, Josephine Murray, John Mackin, Lorne Lawless and Ralph Lawless.

FINED FOR SPEEDING

Babineau Mason appeared in the Police Court this morning on a charge of speeding at the corner of Carmarthen and Queen streets at 7.10 o'clock on the night of Sept. 14, pleaded guilty and was fined $10. D. G. Bennett was fined $10 for speeding in City Road at 8.15 p.m. on the afternoon of Sept. 16.

SEE THE FALLS

At high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a higher level than the water of the Saint John River and forces its way through the gorge of the Falls, creating a "Falls" of water. At low tide the water in the Bay becomes so much lower than that of the river, that the fall of water is reversed and flows down river into the Bay. At half tide, when the level in the Bay and River are about equal, the water at the Falls becomes smooth as the surface of a lake. To fully appreciate this wonder of nature the time to view this phenomenon is:

| TODAY (Daylight Saving Time.) | |

As Hiram Sees It

THE SETTLEMENT. They had a corn-bill down by the shore last night. The corn was bled in the house and carried down in pails—but they had a great bonfire—an' the folks young—an' old set round it an' nibbled like a lot of squills. Well, sir—'t was great fun. It was a fine night—an' I guess some of the young folks kep' that fire goin' till near midnight. They had a gramophone—an' it sounded first-rate down there on the beach. Me an' Han-nar went down fer a spell—but she said I couldn't her no corn—fer I knowed what happened the last time. The older I git, the less things Han-nar lets me eat—an' I s'pose I'll wind up on mush an' milk some day. Well, sir—it was good to see the folks eat that corn—'t was a herin' a lot of fun. They was rather too quiet to suit me—fer when I was young a corn-bill was just cousin to an Injun pow-wow. I can't say they're always as quiet nowadays. You don't always need a bonfire to git warmed-up, sir.

ORPHAN BOYS KILLED AS LIMB OF TREE BREAKS

Leaman Meets Instant Death on Manawagonish Road Grounds

HE WAS CLIMBING WITH 2 OTHER LADS

Coroner Quinton Makes Inquiry and Decides Inquest Not Necessary

Ernest Everett Leaman, aged 13, one of the boys of the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage, Manawagonish Road, fell from a tree last evening and was instantly killed. After examination, Dr. V. D. Davidson, Fairville, said that death occurred with the fall. Clarence H. Quinton, coroner, after investigating the matter, decided that an inquest would not be necessary, death being purely accidental. The unfortunate lad belonged to Moncton. According to the coroner, young Leaman with two other boys climbed up a tree on the estate and as the younger pulled himself out on a limb it broke and he crashed to the ground. The boys with him immediately notified the officials of the orphanage of the accident and Dr. Davidson was called. The boys with Leaman at the time were Harry Blanchet and Desler Jones. Young Leaman was of a bright, cheery disposition and had been in the orphanage for the last six years. Arrangements for the funeral were being completed today.

POLICEMAN WINS AUTOISTS' PRAISE

Traffic Officer John Sheehan Does a Bit More Than The Job Calls For

The man who does a little more than his job calls for, whether he is in business life or a public official is generally the man who progresses with the chance for advancement comes. There's a case in point in the news of today. Although this is a prohibition centre in some way the remnants of a bottle lay at the corner of Mill and Main streets at the noon hour. Police Officer John Sheehan is the traffic man in charge at that corner. When he saw the glass lying about he commanded a shovel from a nearby store and cleared up the menace to auto tires. Autoists who passed at the time stopped to give a word of commendation to the officer for his good work.

PERSONALS
