FREDERICTON, July 25.—Richard B. Hanson, K.C., barrister, of Fredericton, who represented York-Sunbury in the last House of Commons, was again nominated by the Conservatives of the constituency on Saturday afternoon. The convention at which he was placed in nomination was held in York County Court House in this city and represented every section of the two counties. It was a large convention, with many women present. But one name was placed before the delegates and it was received with cheers, which were redoubled when the candidate appeared and accepted nomination. In a vigorous address he asked for support of the entire party and forecasted a majority larger than the record one given the party last October in this constituency.

REFERS TO CUSTOMS PROBE

Mr. Hanson made the customs inquiry the chief basis of his attack on the King Government. He made reference to the campaign of slander and abuse which had been directed toward himself prior to the last election and the answer which had been given by the electorate.

Hon. Charles D. Richards, Minister of Lands and Mines in the New Brunswick Government, J. D. Palmer, of Fredericton, and E. C. Atkinson, M.L.A. for Sunbury, also addressed the convention. W. J. Scott, of Fredericton, president of the York-Sunbury Conservative executive, was chairman.

NOMINATION UNANIMOUS

Councillor Fred Seymour, of Douglas, then moved a resolution of appreciation of R. B. Hanson, K.C., to the effect that he be placed in nomination. Councillor Walter Hargreaves, of Lakeville Corner, Sunbury county, seconded the resolution which was adopted unanimously with cheers. No other name being placed before the convention, Chairman Scott declared R. B. Hanson, K.C., the nominee of the Conservative party in York-Sunbury.

Mr. Hanson said that his first words would be words of thanks for the unanimous nomination tendered to him. On three former occasions the party had been good enough to nominate him and three times he had led the party to victory. On this fourth occasion, said the speaker, he would accept the trust, and when the time arrived he would return to them their confidence unshaken. In 1921, owing to the exigencies of the time, he had been compelled to fight two battles. However, he must say that his greatest thanks were for the majority given him in the contest of Oct. 29, 1923, a vote given in the face of the campaign of the slander and abuse which had been directed against himself. That majority had been 5,847, the greatest ever recorded in the history of the county.

PLEASANT WITH GATHERING.
He was about to say that it would be almost impossible to repeat that majority, but it was possible with the assistance of the delegates. He felt a right to be proud of the gathering before him which represented every community in the two counties with the exception of Forest City, in the most remote western part of York. He could say that never in his life had he bought a man to attend a convention for him and before him there was no one who could say that he had been given anything directly or indirectly to come. It was a free and voluntary gathering.

Mr. Hanson proceeded to outline the events of the session which led up to the general election after the dissolution of the House by the Governor-General. He accused the Mackenzie King government of staying in office day to day, to barter with the Progressives after being defeated at the polls. Dissolution was the only thing. The speaker also dealt at length with the customs inquiry, the Duncan report, the cruise of the Margaret and other incidents.

Charges Denied By Rich Man's Wife

Mrs. C. A. Taylor Declares
She Did Not Kiss Red Grange

LOS ANGELES, July 26.—Mrs. Charles A. Taylor, whose wealthy oil well supply dealer husband charged her with tackling Harold (Red) Grange in a kissing scene and otherwise being more than ordinarily familiar with the footballer, through her attorney, categorically denied all the charges in her spouse's divorce case.

Mrs. Taylor went considerably farther and promised "real fireworks" in answer to her husband's bill which her attorney is busily preparing.

Taylor, although he charged that his wife used one of Grange's knees instead of an adjacent chair, rumpled the hair, patted the cheeks and kissed the lips of the line-busting football player, made it plain that he did not blame "Red."

"Red is a wonderful boy," Mrs. Taylor is quoted as having said.

ment tried to raise a smoke screen of constitutional question to hide their sins from the people. In discussing the matter of dissolution, he said that no government was entitled to dissolution with an adverse vote pending. To grant dissolution under such circumstances would be an insult to the people of Canada.

The Liberal party in New Brunswick, he said, meeting in convention in Saint John, had issued the statement that they were not going to raise the constitutional question in New Brunswick. Mackenzie King gave the lie to that in his first speech.

The Liberals made much of the budget which they claim reduced taxation $23,000,000 a year. They omit stating, however, that except for penny postage every cent of taxation remained as that which they themselves had imposed. Penny postage was held up as an achievement but the saving was for big business and not for the people.

The speaker continuing said that the great want of the country was stability of government. It would start the country on the way to progress. A second great need was clean administration of public affairs, and the Honorable Leader of the Conservative party had given his pledge. The third need was stability of fiscal policy—not a tariff wall as high as Haman's Galloons, nor free trade—but such a tariff that manufacturing and agriculture would develop side by side. A tariff which would provide that the employees of cotton mills will have work.

He said he feared that if Mackenzie King should be returned with a solid French block from Quebec behind him, Canada would be near severance of the Imperial ties.

Hon. C. D. Richards, Minister of Lands and Mines, for New Brunswick, was called to the platform and expressed pleasure in so large a convention. He said it indicated the vitality and enthusiasm which animated the Conservative party.

It was an augury of the result, but no one should be too sure of repeating them to go forward and repeat the victory. If ever a government deserved condemnation, it was the Mackenzie King government.

SUNDAY RALLY AT PARK LAFONTAINE

King Denied Dissolution Because He Was Good Canadian, Says Lacombe

MONTREAL, July 26.—A Liberal rally was held in Park Lafontaine here last night, and the gathering was addressed by Hon. George Boivin, former Minister of Customs; Hon. Mederic Martin, Mayor of Montreal; L. Lacombe, ex-M.P. for Laval-Two Mountains; E. C. St. Per, former member for Hochelaga.

Mr. Boivin dealt with the constitutional issue in the elections and with the customs probe. He was referred to by the other speakers as "the great persecuted one of the last session."

PREDICTS LIBERAL SWEEP

Hon. Mederic Martin declared that he brought tidings of victory from the Canadian West, British Columbia, and even from Ontario, all in favor of the Liberal party, for, he said, while it was true that the City Council had sent him forth to represent Montreal in the University of Montreal trip, he had felt it to be his duty to feel out the political pulse of the country in the course of his tour.

"I can tell you that the people of the other provinces are surprised at the attitude taken by the Governor-General of Canada," said Mr. Martin. "I told them that there was no doubt as to the result. I have no doubt that we will go to bed with power with a greatly increased majority. The people are indignant at the attitude of the Governor-General. I told the people in the other provinces not to be led astray by appeals of race and religion, but, above all, to be good Canadians. We in Quebec will capture at least 64 of the 68 seats. The only job I am in doubt about is Mount Royal."

Mr. Meighen got dissolution because he was an Imperialist, and Mr. King was refused dissolution because he was too much of a Canadian, said Mr. Lacombe.

Dies 44 Years After Brother Was Drowned

Canadian Press
MONTREAL, July 26.—Percy W. Webb, former manager of the Montréal Locomotive Works, died here suddenly on Saturday afternoon at the age of 70 years.

By a turn of fate Mr. Webb's death took place 44 years to the day after his brother, Captain Matthew Webb, noted swimmer and the first man to swim the English Channel, lost his life in an attempt to perform a similar feat in the Niagara Rapids.

This occurred on July 24, 1882.

$100,000 FIRE LOSS IN QUEBEC BY LIGHTNING

Convent, Church and Barn
at St. Polycarp Completely Destroyed.

BATHURST, July 25.—The Roman Catholic church of St. Polycarp at Petit Rocher together with the convent and barn were completely destroyed by fire at 11.30 o'clock last night during an electric storm which lasted only about ten minutes, it became known here today.

The loss is placed at between $100,000 and $125,000 and is covered by about $25,000 in insurance.

It was one of the oldest churches in the Chatham diocese, having been built by the late Father Morin in 1848. The original structure was 100 feet long, to which 80 feet were added about 20 years ago.

The lightning struck the spire above the bells and in a short time the church was completely razed. The fire spread to the convent. The Blessed Sacrament together with the priests' vestments were saved. The furniture in the convent was totally destroyed, for there was no chance of getting it out when the fire got started.

This morning mass was celebrated in front of the presbytery. Rev. N. P. Savile is parish priest.

The Rt. Rev. F. A. Chaisson, Bishop of Chatham, is expected at Petit Rocher tomorrow when, it is understood, arrangements will be made for replacing the structure.
