DISORDERED NERVES

sometimes start from mental strain or indigestion, but more often from general weakness, and lead to appalling conditions unless checked.

Treat the cause, not the effect.

SCOTT'S EMULSION overcomes nervousness in a wonderful, permanent way by making life-sustaining blood corpuscles; it nourishes the nerve centres and acts as a bracing tonic to build you up.

Scott's Emulsion does not stupefy—it feeds them in Nature's way.

ASHBURNHAMS TO OLD COUNTRY

Plan to Leave Fredericton in May or June

DETAILS OF THE WILL

Late Earl Made Various Bequests to Relatives and Others—Diamonds and Other Gems Are Bequeathed as Heirlooms

(Fredericton Gleaser)
The Earl of Ashburnham, who will arrive on Saturday from England, where he has been assuming his new title and estates will remain here for several months.
The present arrangements are for the Earl and Countess of Ashburnham to leave in May for the old country to take up their official residence there. There is a possibility, however, that their departure may be delayed until June.
During the last few weeks friends of Lord Ashburnham have received hangings, containing pheasants and other highly prized English delicacies which have been much enjoyed.

The Will
The Yorkshire Post, published at Leeds, England, has the following regarding the probate of the will of the late Lord Ashburnham:

The estate of the Earl of Ashburnham has been sworn (provisionally) for probate purposes at under the value of £250,000. The testator made various pecuniary legacies, including: To the three children of his sister, Lady Margaret Bickersteth, £5,000 each; to the two children of his sister, Lady Mary Holland, £5,000 each; to his grandchild, the Countess Lucrezia di Campiglione, £200; such sum, as, when invested in consols, will produce £150 a year free of income tax to the priest serving the Roman Catholic mission at Battle; and certain legacies to servants. He also bequeathed the following annuities: Lady Margaret Bickersteth, £300 for her life should she survive her husband or until she becomes tenant for life of the testator's settled property; to the Countess of Ashburnham such an annuity to commence from the death of the present earl as will make her income from all sources to the yearly sum of £300; to Mary, Lady Huddleston (the daughter of Henry Huddleston-Huddleston) an annuity of £20 for her life and to his eldest son, Edwin Jones, an annuity of £120 for his life, all legacies and annuities to be free of duty.
Lord Ashburnham instructed his trustees to give free of duty to Don Jaime de Bourbon, Duke of Madrid, the gold and enamel collar of the Order of the Holy Ghost conferred upon the testator by the late Don Carlos de Bourbon, Duke of Madrid. He bequeathed, free of duty, all the Ashburnham family diamonds and other jewels and the settings thereof, and also the large cat's eye ornament bequeathed to him by his mother and the large star ruby which he inherited from his father, to devolve as heirlooms.

The testator devised his real and personal estate upon trust in the event of his daughter and only child, Lady Mary Catherine Charlotte Ashburnham, returning to secular life to her husband, with remainder to her issue in strict settlement, then successively to the present earl, Lady Margaret Bickersteth, and Lady Mary Holland, and their issue in strict settlement, with remainder to devolve with the baronetcy of Ashburnham, and, failing such remainder, with an ultimate limitation to the testator's own right heirs. In the event of the testator's said daughter remaining in the religious life, the trust in her favor does not take effect, other provision being made for her by the will.

BILLY ALLEN'S BIG MUSICAL COMEDY CO.

Opening Monday night at the Opera House, W. Harder, of Myrtle & Harder's well known company, presents Billy Allen's musical comedy company. For years Myrtle & Harder have given to the people of this country the best, popular, priced attractions to be secured and it is from this past record and the enviable reputation Mr. Allen and his clever company have made in the west that there is no fear in guaranteeing lovers of clean, wholesome entertainment a treat.

There are thirty people in the cast and over twenty song numbers.
The widow of Captain Robert F. Scott, the Antarctic explorer, will henceforth be known as Lady Scott. King George bestowed on her "the same rank, style and precedence as if her husband had been nominated a knight commander of the Bath, as he would have been had he survived."

More than 72,000,000 tons of freight passed through the Saint Lawrence Canal during the season of 1912. Traffic through that waterway has doubled in two years, and still is increasing. At the height of the season 124 vessels passed through the canal in twenty-four hours—a ship every twelve minutes, day and night.
The "Soo" carries more freight than all other ship canals of the world. Suez figures for 1912 are not available, but they will be well under 30,000,000 tons. Manchester and Kiel together may reach 12,000,000 or 15,000,000 tons. By comparison with these other ship canals are negligible.
Suez carries and Panama will carry more valuable freight than that which goes through the "Soo." But it is doubtful if anyone now alive will see the two great ocean ditches carry as great a bulk of traffic as now moves through the humble, fresh-water channel between our inland seas.—Chicago Journal.

WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

MINSTREL MAIDS.

With a double programme, which opened from 8.15 to 10.15, the Minstrel Maids opened their return engagement at the Opera House yesterday. If large attendance is an indication of popularity, then this little company, with its small price of admission, is a favorite in St. John. Under the title of Room 44, the first half of the show is presented, which is a purely farce comedy sketch with plenty of laughter. The second part is a novelty musical comedy skit, the Cabaret. In the portion of the bill the stage is prettily dressed and the costumes of the girls are quite attractive. The song numbers, dances and dances are much better than the company gave on its previous visit and altogether the girls are worth the money. The Gypsy violoncelle called forth many encores by her solo and is a fine addition to the evening's entertainment.
The Minstrel Maids will appear each afternoon and evening for the balance of the week.

COUGHED ALL NIGHT.

This Recipe Was Tried—Cure Followed in 5 Hours

A prominent medical man who suffered with a severe cough and cold on the lungs, often being kept awake all night, and weakened by loss of sleep, finally discovered a simple formula which will cure any cough in five hours by the clock. It is a laxative tonic cough syrup which can be made at home by anyone, and the formula is here given for the benefit of those who pass sleepless nights in painful paroxysms. Those who have tried it say it is magical and bests any high-priced, slow-acting cough medicine ever sold.
Mix in a bottle one-half ounce fluid wild cherry bark, one ounce compound essence cardiol and three ounces syrup white pine compound. Take twenty drops every half hour for four hours. Then take one-half to one teaspoonful three or four times a day. Give children less according to age. This will tone up and rid the system of deep-seated coughs every time.

BUSIEST OF CANALS

Modest "Soo" Carries More Freight Than All Others Combined

More than 72,000,000 tons of freight passed through the Saint Lawrence Canal during the season of 1912. Traffic through that waterway has doubled in two years, and still is increasing. At the height of the season 124 vessels passed through the canal in twenty-four hours—a ship every twelve minutes, day and night.
The "Soo" carries more freight than all other ship canals of the world. Suez figures for 1912 are not available, but they will be well under 30,000,000 tons. Manchester and Kiel together may reach 12,000,000 or 15,000,000 tons. By comparison with these other ship canals are negligible.
Suez carries and Panama will carry more valuable freight than that which goes through the "Soo." But it is doubtful if anyone now alive will see the two great ocean ditches carry as great a bulk of traffic as now moves through the humble, fresh-water channel between our inland seas.—Chicago Journal.

"Himmler, your face is dirty again this morning," said the teacher. "What would you say if I came to school every day with a dirty face?" "I'll be too polite to say anything!" granted Jimmie.
