Men's Working Clothes That Wear

It's the easiest thing we know to get good working clothes. No trouble to us to find them. There are brands that every dealer with horse sense is acquainted with, manufacturers whom everybody knows by name. Their guarantee is as good as the Bank of England and their goods as reliable as the Rock of Gibraltar.

We flatter ourselves that we know what working men of the north end want, and when it's no more trouble to get it than it is to get the other kind, that's all there is to it. We may not make so high a percentage profit but we'll do better in gross returns. Besides, we do pretty much all of it, hereabouts. What more can we expect.

RE-UNION HERE AFTER FORTY-EIGHT YEARS

Brothers Who Had Not Met Since Boyhood Shook Hands Today in North End Home

When they shook hands this morning at the home of John S. Brown, 84 Adelaide street, it was the first time that he and his brother, J. Sox Brown, of Rochester, Washington, had met in forty-eight years, and to say that it was a most delightful and happy reunion would seem superfluous. It was a surprise visit. None knew of the coming of the brother, but he inquired his way from the Eastern S. S. Co.'s pier after coming here on the steamer from Boston, and at an early hour this morning his rap at the door of his brother's home soon made him a most welcome visitor. There was no need of introducing himself. Although they had not seen each other for nearly half a century, there was instant recognition on the part of both brothers, who parted when they were just about in their teens.

The visiting brother, J. Sox Brown, is now a well-to-do farmer in the state of Washington, and this is not only the first time he has been in St. John since he was about twenty years old but the first time he has ever been in St. John. He spent his boyhood days with his other brothers at their old home in Burton, Sunbury county, N. B., but though they have all removed from there, he will visit the scene of his youthful days before continuing to Aroostook, Me., where his two brothers, Joshua and William, reside. He has not seen either of them for the same period, and he is naturally anticipating much joy from the visit. There is also another brother, Z. B. Brown, living near his home in Washington, but these two have been by no means strangers. Fought at Gettysburg. Mr. Brown when he first left his home

WAS AWAY SEVEN MONTHS

Mrs. R. A. Courtenay returned home this morning after an absence of seven months. She and Mr. Courtenay spent the winter in Norfolk, Virginia, with their daughter and son-in-law, and Mrs. C. J. Hargrave. Later they spent three weeks in New York, and then some time in Boston, with their daughter, Mrs. F. P. McCleskey. Mr. Courtenay returned home several weeks ago but went at once to Bridgewater, N. S., and has just returned from that place.

ST. JOHN FACILITIES

A correspondent writes to ask where St. John will be in 1915 or 1916 when three more railways will be running into the city. What facilities will be able to do for deep water berths, freight sheds, sidings, grain elevators and other facilities that will be necessary? This correspondent expresses the view that the best solution of the difficulty would be to bridge the harbor at Navy Island, and bridge all the railways to utilize the facilities at West St. John until the terminals at Courtenay Bay have been provided for the Grand Trunk Pacific, Canadian Northern and the Valley Railway.

PITCHER HARRINGTON

Marathons Put it up to Him To Report by 14th or be Suspended

The announcement that J. E. Harrington, a new pitcher for the Marathons, was on his way to St. John, now appears to be premature. Transportation had been arranged for him by the local management. He has been playing at Belows Falls, Vt., and it was expected that he would have been here before this.

Today F. J. Leonard, manager of the team, received a letter from him stating that, owing to a collision at second base, he would probably be out of the game for a while, as pleurisy was feared. Physicians, he said, had advised him that he would not be in shape to pitch for about a month, and therefore he would not be coming to St. John.

Mr. Leonard wrote him reminding him that he had signed a contract and was to leave for here on June 25, and that transportation had been arranged for that date. Afterwards arrangements had been made for his coming later. He had been expected to leave yesterday, and he added a line to the effect that this same second base trouble had been given as an excuse for not coming here two years ago. The manager told him that he must either report before July 14 or be placed under suspension according to the rules of organized baseball.

Prices Advance Somewhat

Ottawa, July 8.—The department of labor's index number of wholesale prices stood at 187 for May as compared with 186.3 in April, and 186.3 in May 1912. The numbers are the highest since the price level during the decade 1890-1899. The chief advances of May occurred in animals and meats, fish, fruits and vegetables, with considerable decreases in dairy products and fuel. Western grain was upward, paints and oils were lower. In retail prices, dairy products, fish, sugar, potatoes and coal were lower while meats and rentals tended upward.

Unscathed Through Daring Feats, Comes to Grief in Simple Way

J. His shoulders were sprained badly and a finger so lacerated that he will have to have it amputated. Although not serious, yet his injuries are the worst he ever had.
