Philadelphia Tommy Ryan Announces Bill Umland, Iowa Lumberman, as the Man to do It

Thomas Phinney, a St. John man, better known as Philadelphia Tommy Ryan, believes that he has found in big Bill Umland, a lumberman from Manning, Ia., a man with the qualifications to capture the world's heavyweight championship from Jack Johnson.

The St. John man is now a resident of Des Moines, Ia., where he conducts a boxing school, and it was among his pupils that he picked Umland. The "New" of Des Moines says:
"Des Moines may produce the man who is to become the 'White Man's Hope.' In Bill Umland, lumberman from Manning, Ia., Tommy Ryan thinks he has discovered the most promising heavyweight turned out of the middle west in many years." The paper says that Umland, though new at the game has experience up to two weeks ago being confined to rough and tumble battles with his companions in the lumber camps—adds "but two weeks of training under Ryan have led that classy fighter to mark his protégé as a real comer."
Umland is 24 years old and weighs 200 pounds. He is six feet in his stockings and of powerful build. Ryan is trying to secure a bout for his find with one or two of the heavyweights in the central west. Philadelphia Tommy Ryan is a brother of William Phinney of this city.

HARVESTING ICE CROP

Ald. Scully, of the Union Ice Company, said this morning that the company will start cutting ice at Spruce Lake today or tomorrow, and will have a crew of thirty men employed. The cut, he said, would be a good deal larger than during the last three years. Mr. Scully added in reference to a rumor that the company was to retire from business, that such a statement was entirely incorrect.

The St. John Ice Company will begin harvesting at Lily Lake next week.

IN NEW YEAR*Bank Clearings for First Week in January Show Increase
27 Per Cent Over 1910—
Canada's Big Gain in Year

For the first week of January, 1911, St. John showed an increase of $624,127 in bank clearings, or 27 per cent over the first week of 1910. In the percentage of increase this city was exceeded only by two others in the dominion, Vancouver with an increase of 38.97 per cent, and Edmonton with an increase of 36.42 per cent. The bank clearings for the year 1910 are a record for the dominion. Every city registers a gain. The total clearings for the year were $6,184,701,387 as compared with $5,204,955,339 in 1909. St. John stands eleventh in the list of cities. A comparison between Halifax and St. John shows that this city is rapidly going ahead while the sister city is gaining very slowly. In the last four years Halifax has made a gain of slightly more than $2,000,000 while St. John shows a gain of more than $10,000,000 in the same period. The figures for Halifax last year were $85,853,316 and for St. John, $7,843,546.

Father Duke, the Rector, Speaks of Spiritual and Temporal Advance—Would Like to See Saloons Wiped Out of City

In St. Peter's church, North End, yesterday morning at the 10:30 o'clock mass, the rector, Rev. A. J. Duke, C.S.B., read the annual statement in regard to the affairs of the parish, spiritual and temporal, and spoke very encouragingly of the prosperous condition of the church at the present time, and the success attained in the year just closed.

Both from a spiritual and temporal standpoint the last year, he said, had closed successfully. Many improvements had been made about the church, the chapel, the Sunday school library, the rooms of the Y. M. A., and Working Boys, and in this there was much to be pleased with, while from a religious point of view, the people of the parish in general had lived up to the requirements of their church, evidence of this being seen in the progress made in the various societies and organizations connected therewith. Another significant feature was the fact that there had been more than 30,000 communions.

Speaking of the temperance question, Rev. Father Duke, in a clear and forceful manner, said that liquor was causing a great deal of poverty and misery in the city, and he would like all to unite against it. "Would to God," said he, "that it were deemed necessary for me to wipe out the places where it is sold."

Father Duke then referred to the retreat which is to be started in the church on Sunday next, when Rev. P. Shehan, C.S. R., of Brooklyn, will preside. The first sermon at the 10:30 o'clock mass. He urged all the parishioners to pray for the success of the retreat, and requested that they attend faithfully at the services, part of which will be for men and part for women.

Rain, Snow, Sunshine and Wind Marked Today in St. John—Likely to be Colder

Between early morning and evening yesterday there was a change of twenty degrees in temperature and a strong wind. This morning was accompanied by snow which later turned to rain and then this afternoon the sun shone for a while.

Yesterday was fine and clear in the early morning with the temperature seventeen above. In the evening the glass indicated a rise to thirty seven. Storm signals were displayed at noon yesterday and this morning we had a moderate south east gale. At Point Lepreau the wind was blowing fifty miles an hour at 7 o'clock. About one inch of snow fell this morning, immediately followed by rain. At today the temperature was thirty-seven.

Signals are now displayed for a gale from the west and north. The center of the disturbance is in northern Maine. The indications are for a drop in temperature.

REV. MR. CAMERON CATCHES A THIEF

Clergyman Who Took Part In Campaign Here Has an Experience in Toronto

The Toronto Telegram has the following interesting story of the manner in which Rev. W. W. Cameron, of Toronto, dealt with a thief who was trying to steal furs from the lobby of the Bloor street church. Rev. Mr. Cameron will be remembered for his work here in the evangelical campaign, about a year ago. The article reads:—
The lobby of Bloor street Baptist church offered a great temptation to a thief last night.

Outside the church it was cold, and getting colder. Inside the church the Sunday school festival was being held. In the lobby were the furs and warm clothes that the people attending the festival had discarded while they were inside.

Along comes Mr. Thief, and seeing these things, proved a great temptation. He gathered an awful and the warmest looking furs and began to make his "23" sign.

Just at this time, however, Rev. W. W. Cameron came outside to get a breath of fresh air, and he saw the mysterious movements. He followed the moving furs, and discovered that there was a man underneath it all. The combat which followed was brief, the pastor ducking the thief's head in a snow pile, and giving him a few short arm jolts. Then he gave him some advice and let him go, while he took the furs back to the owners in the church.
