HONOR SOLDIERS IN CHURCH UNVEILING

Window in Fairville Church
Dedicated; Tablet to Basil
Winter's Memory.

In memory of members of the congregation who served during the Great War, a beautiful window was unveiled and dedicated at a service in the Fairville Baptist church yesterday afternoon in the presence of a congregation that filled the church and the adjoining schoolroom. On plates are inscribed the names of those who made the supreme sacrifice, as follows: Harold Duplisa, Freeman Fowler, John Hamilton, Harold D. Linton, Eugene McLaughlin and Willard C. Miller. The service was conducted by Rev. J. C. Clark, the pastor, while the act of unveiling was performed by Mrs. A. E. Kierstead, president of the Ladies' Aid Society, which raised the funds to install the window. Members of local military units were present, including Col. Commandant J. Houlston, D. S. O., Lt.-Col. H. C. Sparling, Lt.-Col. G. P. Corbet and others. Others present included Councillors J. T. O'Brien, Murray Campbell and W. Golding. The scripture reading was by Rev. J.

TONGUE COATED BAD TASTE IN MOUTH EYES TINGED WITH YELLOW Liver Trouble The Cause

Mrs. A. C. Brown, Oromocto, Ont., writes:—"I have been troubled with my liver for a few years back, and was so bad I did not feel able to do my work. I had severe pains in my stomach, so bad I could hardly stand them at times; coated tongue; bad taste in the mouth, especially in the morning; whites of eyes tinged with yellow, and had a muddy and sallow complexion. I had read a great deal about Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and decided I would try a vial, and after taking two or three I found I was greatly improved, and can truthfully say that I felt more like living and can now do my own work without any trouble." Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or will be mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

M. Rice, while special music was given by Mr. and Mrs. Murray Long, Miss Marion Stevens, Percy Flewelling and E. C. Girvan.

The games of the honor roll are as follows: Lewis H. W. S. Allingham, Ernest O. Arbo, Judson O. Arbo, Lt. C. Ernest Baker, Frank Baker, Mary E. Barnhill, W. Percy Barnhill, Lieut. Chester Beveridge, Clarence Beveridge, Willard Beveridge, Ralph S. Black, Eddie Cameron, George Chambers, John M. Clark, Harold Duplisa, James Duplisa, Michael Ellwood, Freeman Fowler, Guy F. Fox, William M. Fox, John Hamilton, Corp. William Harris, William Harris, Jr., J. Gordon Huestis, Ralph J. Huestis, V. Cowan Knorr, John Knorr, R. D. Knox, Gordon S. Lawson, Lowell T. Lawson, Roland Lawson, Harold D. Linton, Corp. Kenneth Linton, Frank Lodge, Herbert J. Lodge, Walter Marshall, Eugene C. McLaughlin, Allan A. Miller, Albert Miller, James A. Miller, Willard C. Miller, George Ring, Harold D. Ring, Vincent Sege, Edith M. Sine, William H. Walters, Glendon Williams and Harold Williams.

Present-day economic problems are due to stupidity and immorality, declared Rev. P. McLeod in a forceful sermon yesterday in St. Matthew's church. He urged people to cultivate more individuality and follow their own conscience and not the crowd.

The evangelistic services in Carleton Methodist church conducted by Rev. Dr. G. F. Phelps were concluded last evening with a large congregation present. In his address he urged the people to retain their faith in the Bible. A duet was sung by Richard Dawson and F. J. Punter.

Beginning a series of sermons of events in the New Testament from Easter to Pentecost, Rev. Robert G. Fulton preached last evening in Centenary church on "The Woman to Whom the First Message Came," meaning Mary Magdalene, first at the tomb on Easter day. The congregation was very large. The flowers were in memory of the late Joshua Clawson, for many years a leader of the choir. William Langton sang a solo. Rev. Neil MacLaughlin preached in the morning, exchanging with Rev. Mr. Fulton.

The sacred Easter cantata "Alleluia" written by R. M. Stults and inscribed to Christ church choir, Ridley Park, Pa., first published in January of this year, was sung last night by the choir of St. Mary's church. Mrs. H. Taylor McKim, organist and choir leader directed the cantata. The choir numbers 38 voices, and both choruses and solo parts were admirably sung. The soloists were Mrs. W. Osborne, R. L. Carless, Miss Eva Mitchell, Miss Edna Hunt, Mrs. John Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Olive, Mrs. Howell, J. N. Rogers and Daniel Bevans. A brief service of prayer was conducted by Rev. R. T. McKim. An exchange of pulpits was made yesterday by Rev. H. A. Goodwin, of the Portland Methodist church, in St. John, and Rev. E. Val Tilton, of the Central Methodist church, Moncton. The choir of St. Columbia church in Fairville, and St. Matthew's church, North End, made an exchange last night and repeated their Easter music. The music was greatly enjoyed.

Seventeen members were received in the Fairville Methodist church last night when the service was conducted by Rev. J. M. Rice, pastor. It was announced yesterday by Rev. R. G. Fulton that Rev. Campbell Morgan, the celebrated English preacher, would be in St. John for a week this fall and would conduct a mission similar to last year. The churches uniting in bringing him here are Centenary, St. David's, St. Andrew's and German street Baptist. Rev. G. D. Hudson, a former pastor of the Victoria street Baptist church, preached at that church yesterday morning and at the Waterloo street church in the evening.

At the morning service yesterday in Stone church there was unveiled a brass tablet to the memory of Basil Winter, the first member of the "26th" to win the Military Cross. The unveiling was done by Lieut.-Col. J. L.

"TO HELP OTHERS"

The Salvation Army
Annual Self-Denial
Appeal

"TO Help Others" is the whole basis of Salvation Army activity. All its work is bound up in these three words. If it were not so, it would not be necessary to ask you, once a year, to support the Self-Denial Appeal.

There is hardly a phase of life that the Army does not touch in one way or another. The rich and poor, the sick, the feeble—those who have measured years by their sorrows—all seek the Army's helping hand.

We believe you are eager that we continue our work among the unfortunate ones. Give us your financial and prayerful co-operation and we will keep on "helping others".

The Money You Give
will be made to yield full value for every dollar. It will be spent where it will do the greatest good.

Will You Give Something To-day?

POSAM OFTEN ENDS PIMPLES IN 24 HOURS

Whenever any of these annoying eruptions appear, dab them at night with that gentle, healing Posam ointment. It is so concentrated that by the next morning the pimples have sometimes gone. If they aren't all gone then touch them again with a bit of Posam. This does the trick. At all druggists.

McAvity, the first commander of the battalion, the prayer of dedication was offered by Rev. A. L. Fleming and the Last Post was sounded by Bugler Horsman.

A plea for candidates for the mission fields of the church was made yesterday by Rev. P. G. Powell of Toronto. The visiting preacher spoke at St. George's church in the morning and St. Luke's in the evening.

Men Conduct Service.
The service in St. Andrew's church last evening entirely was directed by the Young Men's Club, and was unique in the history of the church. Fred Smith, president, was in the chair, while Rev. J. S. Bonnell, minister, led the devotional exercises. Everett McGarity read the scriptures and J. J. Murray spoke of the relation of the young men to their church. Allister Morrison told of the club's aims and Cecil Spence urged for an increased membership and more active interest in the club. Selections were given by a male double quartette composed of Thomas Guy, G. Young, Donald Young, H. Shaw, H. Finley, Wallace Brander, G. Clapp.

St. George's Day Service.
The annual divine service in memory of St. George's Day was held last evening in St. John Baptist (Mission) church with Rev. J. V. Young, chaplain to the society, conducting the services. About 80 members, headed by R. G. Schofield, president, attended and listened to an impressive sermon on consecration by the chaplain, C. B. Allan, president of St. Andrew's Society, attended the service.

St. David's church was filled to capacity last evening after the regular service to hear the combined choir of St. David's and St. Andrew's sing the cantata, "Seven Last Words of Christ." The soloists were Mrs. B. C. Ferris, Mrs. Thomas Guy, A. Smith, H. Shaw, T. Guy and C. Girvan.

N. C. BUILDING ROADS.

Raleigh, N. C., April 28.—(United Press).—North Carolina is building five miles of hard-surfaced roads a day, according to State construction men. The $65,000,000 programme of the Road Commission calls for modern highways connecting all the principal towns.

Put Quick Finish To Bakers' Lockout

Rio de Janeiro, April 28.—(United Press).—The Prefect of this city has his own little peculiar way of ending lockouts, which proved a complete success when bakery owners endeavored to close their shops as a protest against a municipal ordinance shortening working hours in bakeries.

Bakery owners of Rio de Janeiro met and decided to close shop, not considering in the least the million and a half inhabitants of this city who would probably be left breadless, until the municipal ordinance protested should be repealed.

Mr. Prefect notified the bakers that their shops would be taken over by the Government and baking would continue. Baking was continued without the Government taking over the shops.

WILL WIN $25 PRIZE.

A prize of $25 in gold awaits the winner of the correct ticket, No. 989, bought at the door of the Knights of Columbus tea last week in their hall Coburg street. A big crowd took advantage of the brightly lighted hall and the delicious tea served by competent waitresses. Miss Kathryn Galivan made the hit of Saturday evening when she went among the crowd singing. Joseph Kennedy, at the Waterbury and Rising Ltd. store, Union street, has the unclaimed prize for the fortunate winner.

FIRE PREVENTION.

This is Fire Prevention Week. It will be featured this year broadcasting by radio of special addresses by His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Todd, Premier Veniot here probably on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Arrangements for observance of the week have been made under the direction of Hon. C. W. Robinson, Minister of Lands and Mines.

MAY DEVOTIONS TO BEGIN.

The regular nightly May devotions will begin in all the Catholic churches of the city on Thursday night, May 1.

Bought but not paid for

If you buy a frail battery the purchase price is only your first payment. You keep on making part payments in repair bills.

You will find that there is surprisingly little difference between the first cost and the last cost of an Exide. This is all the more noteworthy because the Exide gives such long service.

The quality of Exide Batteries is as high as ever. The prices are lower than ever. The economy of buying an Exide is greater than ever.
