

of Madras, I beg you to accept my grateful acknowledgments, and to be assured that both his supplications and my own will be fervently offered to the Almighty Giver of all good, for every spiritual blessing on you and the community for whom you are interested.

AUBREY NEWFOUNDLAND.

The Rev. Messrs. FAULKNER, SNOWBALL, and SUTCLIFFE.

The Lord Bishop has been pleased to appoint the Rev. CHARLES BLACKMAN to be his Lordship's chaplain.—Times, June 17.

The death of A. W. Godfrey Esq., has caused a vacancy in the representation of Conception Bay.—We have been credibly informed, however, that the writ for the election of a member for that District, will not be issued until the fall.—Newfoundlander.

(To the Editor of the Star.)

SIR,
It cannot but be exceedingly gratifying to you, to be informed that your praiseworthy exertions in the cause of Temperance has been followed by one of the most numerous and respectable meetings that ever took place on a similar occasion in the Island of Newfoundland. At St. John's on Friday evening last, the Mechanics' Hall was crowded to excess, and a deep and it is to be hoped a lasting impression was made in behalf of a cause at once honorable to humanity and infinitely creditable to those who have borne the heat and burden of the day. But what Sir, is Harbor Grace about? The energetic—the public spirited town of Harbor Grace! She who can command her meetings, at a moment's notice, for any purpose? What is she I say about? Where are the influences? What are they about? Shall we not hear the sound of the "Gathering" here also; or are we to give it over as a lost hope? I trust not. The time I hope is now arrived when a simultaneous movement of all the Tee-totalers in the Island will take place—and sure I am that Harbor Grace be not the first she, at least will not be the last to bestir herself in the glorious cause.

I am, Mr. Editor,

Your obedient Servant,
