

Managers' Annual Report.

It is with every reason of thankfulness to God, for His goodness to us as a congregation, that your Board present their Annual Report for 1894.

It will be unnecessary for us to comment on the various departments connected with our church, as each of these departments will present its report separately. It is pleasant to note, however, that each has been carrying on its work in a satisfactory manner, and we have every reason to be thankful for the progress made.

In 1893 the open collections amounted to $1,138.83, and during the past year $1,056.46, a decrease of $82.37. The revenue received from the envelopes during 1893 was $3,896.68, and during 1894 $3,602.17, a decrease of $294.51, or a total decrease of our direct revenue for 1894 of $376.88.

The average collection for 1893 was $96.83 per Sabbath, and the average collection for 1894 was $89.77 per Sabbath.

It will be noticed from the financial statement in your hands that $4,658.63 was received from the ordinary revenue, and placed at the disposal of your Board for the conducting of the affairs of the church, along with $970 received from other sources, which was $554.77 less than the amount required for this work. If you will take these figures into your serious consideration, you will at once understand the trying position in which your Treasurer was placed. You will understand, and realize the very great importance of every member's giving according to his or her ability regularly, from the beginning to the end of the year.

It will be necessary for the congregation during the year to materially increase the ordinary revenue, so as
