sentiments themselves we can take but few exceptions. If our pride has been wounded by this volley of degrading epithets—if our bosoms burn at the reflection that the land of our fathers, of ourselves, and our little ones has become a proverb of scorn and scandal throughout the earth—the infamy of it rests with us, not with those who have drawn the picture.

But is there not still left among us a sufficiency of integrity and sterling worth to redeem our manifold forfeits? Is there not left a little of that "salt of the earth" which has not yet lost its savor?
If there be but one particle of it remaining let it be fostered—let it be protected; it may yet form a nucleus round which its congeners will rally, till its saving and purifying influence shall be spread far and wide.

We observe by the St. John's papers that Lord DURHAM has resigned his Commission as Governor General of British North America: if this be true what will become of his immaculate Turton?
Alas poor Yorick!

the 22d she experienced a heavy gale from the rudder, bulwarks, and hove her on her beam ends and caused her to upset and spill all her water-casks but one; on the 27th the Capt. got a temporary rudder shipped, and when Capt. Little spoke him, he said he was bound for the first port he could make; he had sailed from Dublin about the beginning of the month, and was bound out for St. John, N.B. The day after Capt. L. past him, he experienced a very heavy gale from the S. E., which continued to blow for 48 hours. It is to be hoped the R. B. weathered the storm.—On Hamburg, bound to St. John's N. F., she reported
