A MUSICAL TOUR.
G. S. Mayes and Mrs. Mayes returned on Saturday from a four weeks' trip to Boston and New York.
During the trip Mr. and Mrs. Mayes took advantage of the opportunity presented to hear the Grand Opera at New York, at which is centered at the present time the world's greatest musical talent. Among the artists heard were Semblich, Calve and Gadsch. The Boston Symphonies, under the conduc-torship of Strauss, were also taken in.

street, has decided to open at night during the wall paper season.

Al. Coates, foreman of the spare engine in the I. C. R. yard, had his hand badly crushed between the couplings of two cars yesterday.

The smallpox epidemic in Sydney, Cape Breton, is dying out and yesterday for the first time within the past three weeks the churches were allowed to be open.

Rev. David Lang, of New York state, preached at both services in St. David's church yesterday. Next Sunday he will also occupy the pulpit at both services.

His Honor Judge Forbes was in Chambers this morning for the first time since returning from Montreal.
He was warmly greeted by a host of friends.

The 33rd annual reunion of the Society of St. Joseph will be held in their rooms in St. Malach's Hall this evening, when a good time will be provided for all present. This flourishing society now numbers 200 members.

All day Sunday the water work department men were busy repairing a leak in the old 12-inch main which connects the Lancaster reservoir with Carleton. The main was laid forty years ago and is about played out.

Capt. L. H. Baird, of Wolfville, has purchased from Royal P. Soley, of Lower Economy, the schooner R. P. S., and will employ her exclusively in the freight traffic between St. John and Wolfville.

Mrs. John Campbell, of Pleasant Point, wishes to express, through the Star, her sincere gratitude for the kindness of many friends during her recent sickness. She especially thanks the master and pupils of the Milford school for their floral offerings.

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the Chapman chorus at Mrs. Coates', Union street, Tuesday evening at eight o'clock.
Every member is expected to be present to consider the fall festival.

The trial of George Gee, charged with the murder of Miller Gee, will commence at Woodstock tomorrow. Attorney-General Pugsley will leave for Woodstock this afternoon to prosecute the crown. J. C. Hartley will defend the prisoner.

Signor Marconi will be in Cape Bre-ton early in June. His station at Table Head has undergone many changes and a great quantity of new machinery has been installed. Before going to Cape Breton he will confer with the dominion government regarding the use of land wires.

Saturday night an engine was being given the run round the turntable at Gilbert's crossing, the engine started and went over the side to the table. The engine was injured very little, if any. Matters were being set right yesterday.

A large number of the members of the young men's society of St. Joseph attended eight o'clock mass and received Holy Communion yesterday morning in the cathedral. In celebration of the feast of the patronage of St. Joseph, Mass was said by Rev.
Father Cormier, who also preached a sermon appropriate to the day. At nine o'clock mass, Bishop Casey spoke on the same subject. At eight o'clock the society will have a reunion in their rooms, St. Malach's Hall.

A SHILLALAH FOR JUDGE CARLE-TON.
Judge Carleton was given a pleasant surprise yesterday afternoon when the Father Matthew Dramatic Association presented him with a handsome Irish blackthorn cane as a mark of appreciation of the assistance rendered by him in staging "More Sinned Against Than Sinning" on St. Patrick's night.
His honor warmly acknowledged the remembrance.

F. R. PATTERSON & CO.
The steamer Beatrice Waring is now on her regular route up the Belleisle, not to Washademoak, as erroneously stated in the Star Saturday.

THE DAYLIGHT STORE.
Capt. Postman, of the Beatrice E.
Waring, says that there is not any sign of ice on the main river, that all the up-river ice melted away and has given the several crews of men who were on the lookout for logs a splendid chance to gather them all in, and he would be surprised if any escaped, as all conditions—a slack tide, an up-river wind and very little ice gave them a splendid opportunity to string their booms.
A boom was hung at Buzzard's, about fifteen miles above John G. Yawar's, and here a big catch of logs was made.

POLICE COURT

Another Sheffield Street Frequenter Goes to Jail—Woman Charged with Abusive Language.

For the first time for some weeks, Magistrate Ritchie today held court in his regular quarters which, since he last presided there, have undergone a thorough renovation. While the painters took considerable more time at the job than was expected, the work was well done and the court room now looks better than ever before. The colors are light and the woodwork is grained in oak.

There were five penitents on the bench. Two others who had been arrested and let out on deposit failed to put in appearance and did not lose anything as the prevailing figure this morning was eight dollars.

Charles Patterson, in addition to being fined $8 for drunkenness with an option of thirty days, was given three months' additional hard labor without a fine on pleading guilty to being a habitual frequenter of houses of ill-repute on Sheffield street. Patterson, who is known to the police, lost his permanent home when Amelia Francis was sent to Dorchester. Since then he drifted from one den of iniquity, stopping wherever he could get a meal.

Cole T. Wilband was before the court charged by J. C. R. Officer Collins with trespassing on the I. C. R. track. Wil-band stated that he went to the yard on business for the first he works for.
He had been in the habit of doing so and did not know that it was against the regulations. His honor said that sufficient notice had been given through the press and imposed the usual penalty of $20.

Mrs. Hannah Stanley, arrested on a warrant for abusive language to her landlady, Miss Forsythe, has placed the officials in a very peculiar position. Mrs. Stanley, who is the widow of the man who disappeared while on a fishing trip and whose body was later found in the woods near Mipec, is very deaf, and the court could not make her understand what the trouble was. Miss Forsythe was in court and said all she wished was to get Mrs. Stanley out of the premises she occupies at 11 Pitt street, as she was not paying any rent. It was ascertained that Mrs. Stanley has no visible means of support, and her case was referred to the alms house commissioners. She has a son and two daughters residing at Grand Manan, but declined to go to them and live with them.
She had with her in court a little girl, three years of age, a granddaughter, whose mother is dead and whose father deserted her.

Patrick Scammell, who resides near Murray's mill, complained this morning that the Wm. Lockhart and a lad named Walsh had thrown stones at him and called him some hard names.
Lockhart explained that he had gone to the vicinity of Scammell's house to get a part of a stove that belonged to him and Scammell came out with an axe and ordered him away. He did not call him any names or throw any stones. Walsh admitted throwing one stone and explained that the row originated some days previous over some drift logs. A fine of $8 was imposed on Walsh, but it was allowed to stand pending his future behavior.
