ROOSEVELT WILL VISIT NEW ORLEANS.
Left This Morning on His Southern Trip.

Will Call at the Plague-Stricken City Before he Returns—Will Come Back in a Warship.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—In redemption of a promise given more than a year ago President Roosevelt started today an extended trip through the states of the south. He will visit in the course of his tour all of the south Atlantic coast states, Alabama, Arkansas and Louisiana. On the completion of his trip he will have visited, during his administration as president, every state in the union.
After tentative arrangements for the trip had been completed the epidemic of yellow fever in New Orleans, one of the principal points of the president's visit. He was advised by many of his friends that he ought not to visit New Orleans at the time scheduled, lest he be exposed to the fever. To the people of New Orleans the president suggested that if they preferred he would postpone his visit to that city until a later date. Assurances were given him, however, by Mayor Behrman and by officials of the Marine Hospital that at the time of his proposed visit to New Orleans danger from fever infection practically would be out of consideration. The quarantine of other southern states against Louisiana and New Orleans is still in force, however, and in order not to violate the quarantine regulations the president changed his itinerary so as to make New Orleans the last place he should visit. It is his intention, after spending the day of the 26th in the city to board the armored cruiser West Virginia and make the return trip to Washington.

KING OPENS NEW LONDON THOROUGHFARE.

New Street Through the Heart of Congested London—Slums Eradicated—Cost $30,000,000.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The fine new thoroughfare formed by Kings Way and Aldrich, connecting the Strand and Holborn through the heart of congested London, was opened today by King Edward, with considerable ceremonial. Queen Alexandra and other members of the Royal family were present. The route was lined by troops, the decorations were on a pretentious scale and immense crowds gathered to participate in the event.
The new street is considered to be the most important improvement carried out in the metropolis since the construction of Regent street, in 1825. The work occupied the region, cost over $30,000,000, of which it is estimated that two thirds will be recovered by the sale of building sites. The thoroughfare is three quarters of a mile in length and a hundred yards wide. The notorious slums of the neighborhood have been eradicated. Underground trolley cars run beneath the new street.

SUCCESSFUL ECLIPSE PHOTOS.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 18.—Prof. J. Hussey, the new head of the department of astronomy has just arrived here from Egypt, where he went to photograph the recent total eclipse of the sun.
When the eclipse came, fifteen pictures were secured. They were made on plates giving the sun's diameter a scale of four and three-tenths inches. "Contrary to our expectations the eclipse did not cause complete darkness. Owing to the dust in the air reflecting light from the region, outside totality it was from six to ten times brighter than full moon."
The negatives made by Prof. Hussey have been sent to Lick Observatory. There they will be studied before the results obtained by the expedition will be made public.

LEADING PHILADELPHIA WOMEN WILL HELP IN COMING ELECTIONS.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 18.—A new feature in political campaigning in Philadelphia was the appointment yesterday by William A. Tilden, chairman of the city party campaign committee of 29 women, wives of prominent men of the city, to take a prominent part in the present political battle. They will make a special effort to get out the stay-at-home voters.

BALLOONS IN WARFARE.

TOULON, Oct. 18.—In the course of further experiments with the huge dirigible balloon constructed under the direction of the war office, the aeronauts succeeded in dropping dummy projectiles upon the forts demonstrating the possibility of ships being used to completely destroy military works during hostilities.

ADEQUATE REFERENCES.

In her book, "A Southern Girl in '61," just published, Mrs. D. Girard Wright tells a capital story about Gen. John C. Breckenridge, of Kentucky. He was invited by a certain lady of rank in London to luncheon. The lady had just advertised for a footman. Mistaking the hour, Gen. Breckenridge reached the house before the appointed time, but by some accident was ushered into Lady Blank's presence without being announced. The day was in June. Owing to the heat the blinds were drawn, letting in subdued light. Lady Blank, glancing at the advancing figure to the astonishment of the visitor, greeted him thus: "Have you a reference from your last place?"
The general took in the situation instantly, and with a twinkle in his eye, answered by the hostess, answered, respectfully, "Yes, my lady."
"What were your duties?" was the next query.
"Well, my lady, in the last three places I held I was Vice-President of the United States, Major-General of the Confederate Army, and Secretary of War of the Confederate States of America."

BREACH OF PROMISE CASE IN WOODSTOCK.

Wronged Girl Sues Faithless Lover for $2,000.

Defendant's Lawyer, Mr. Carvell, Refused to Conduct His Case—Evidence Shows Heartless Misconduct.

(Special to the Star.)
WOODSTOCK, N. B., Oct. 18.—This morning in the circuit court, a case of breach of promise, was taken up. Annie H. Tomkins is suing Murray Ellis, both being residents of this city, for $2,000 on a breach of promise to marry.
It was set forth in the opening of counsel for the plaintiff that these two were keeping company and were engaged to be married and that while so engaged the defendant seduced the plaintiff. A child was eventually born. The mother and child were in court and a very good looking infant it was, including in a good deal of baby talk during the progress of the case.
The defendant did not appear on the day and before the jury was called William Carvell, who was attorney for the defendant stated that he had advised his client that he would not appear for him so that the case was really undefended. Hon. W. P. Jones, solicitor general, represented the plaintiff. She gave her testimony setting forth the facts already summarized, and was corroborated by her father and other details. The case was on at noon adjournment.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL GATCHES ON IN U. S.

Big Intercollegiate League to be Formed—Leading Colleges and Athletic Societies are Interested.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The visit of the English Pilgrim Association football team to America to introduce the association game to colleges and leading clubs in this country has received a boost from the Metropolitan Association Football League Association, which has elected a committee to advance the game in all other prominent eastern colleges with the ultimate object of establishing a big inter-collegiate league, says the Times.
The project will be under the direction of the English ambassador, Sir Ernest Cochrane, who sails for England this morning made the offer last night for a trophy for inter-collegiate games. He is very much encouraged with the progress of Association football in this country and predicts a great future for it. He expects to return to America in a few weeks.

CASE DIAGNOSED AT ONCE.

One of America's greatest physicians was called to the bedside of a grand dame of distinguished name and many millions, who is a leader of American society. But now the grand dame groaned and grunted in her silken bed like any washerwoman. The physician examined her carefully. Then he said: "You must get up every morning at 6 o'clock. Take for breakfast a cup of weak tea and two pieces of dry toast. From 9 to 11 exercise, either walking or sweeping or dusting. At noon lunch on a slice of cold meat, filtered water and stale bread. Don't sleep in the afternoon; exercise again. For dinner take nothing but a little meat, a vegetable and toast. No sweets, no wines, no social dissipation of any kind."
The eyes of the grand dame flashed fire as she said:
"But, doctor, do you comprehend my position? Do you know who I am?"
"Perfectly, madam," answered the physician. "You are an old woman with a sour stomach."

FRENCH WARSHIP FOR VENEZUELA

France is Tired of Castro's Fooling.

One Cruiser Has Started and Others are Ready—No Immediate Violence is Contemplated.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—The French armored cruiser Desaix, understood to be bound for Venezuelan waters, did not put in to Brest after leaving Cherbourg, October 16th, as it was announced she would do, but passed the Island of Usant, heading direct for the French Antilles. For the present the cruiser Levoletier and Chase Louis Leboeuf will be held at Brest, as the situation may not require their presence in West Indian waters.
The officials here say that the published report that the French squadron intends either to bombard some coast point such as Cumana or Barcelona, or else seize Venezuelan shipping, is an exaggeration, as the only decision arrived at is to have ships in readiness, the nature of the demonstration being determined on later on if the attitude of Venezuela requires a resort to force. At the same time the officials are sincerely anxious to avoid the necessity of adopting force.
In any event the United States will be fully advised in advance concerning the nature of any coercive measures.

She shot him in the forehead as he was ascending the stairs, but he did not stop. He was fatally and returned to his own home before he died.

This decision will stop the boxing contests scheduled for the winter at the Chicago A. C. and at all other clubs whose members are preparing to follow the lead of the Chicago A. C.
