Quebec, 15.—The first collector of customs at the Port of Quebec was Thomas Knox. He was named a collector in 1762 while Quebec was made a port of entry in the same year and Montreal in 1831. Hon. John Young was the first master of the Trinity House in the ancient capital, which was established in 1805. At this date Francois Boucher was Harbor Master at Quebec and Gabriel Franchère at Montreal. L. Lambly was the harbor master in Quebec in 1813 and it is on record that he visited the Island of Anticosti, where supplies were landed and stored in wooden shelters or provision posts, erected by the provincial government for the use of shipwrecked crews. Mr. Lambly made the return journey in an open boat in 18 days.

authorities as to the health of those on board their vessels before coming up the river. The Grosse Ile quarantine was first opened in 1832. In 1785 plans for improving the navigation of the St. Lawrence by buoys and lights were submitted to the Governor by the Quebec merchants. In 1806 another plan was there were several buoys and two beacons in Lake St. Peter, so named by Samuel de Champlain in 1606 as he entered in on June 29, St. Peter's Day.

TWO SAINT JOHN MEN KILLED IN AIR CRASH

Instant death came to two Saint John aviators, John "Scotty" Stirling and Ruyard Brayley, when the Saint John Flying Club Gypsy moth plane, CAV in which they were flying crashed at Millidgeville at 8:35 p. m. Sunday. It is believed that the tragedy happened when Stirling, who was handling the controls, was trying to pull the machine out of a spin which developed at the bottom of a loop at an altitude of between 1,000 to 2,000 feet. The plane was totally wrecked and the bodies of the two men were terribly mutilated.

BRIDE-TO-BE IS ARRESTED AT BOUNDARY

Bathor, Me., 11.—Miss Delmba Coulombe of Baker Brook, N. B., who is to be married soon, thought there was no harm in coming to look over a new house on the Maine side, where she is to live, but she neglected formalities, was arrested by unfeeling immigration officers and brought to Bangor. She will be deported but expects to be back in Maine again soon with all proper credentials.

A FIVE CENT BILL

A five cent bill issued by the United States government in 1863 and bearing the picture of George Washington, first president of the United States, is owned by John E. Lawlor, of Ottawa. Mr. Lawlor has received several fairly large offers for the curio but is not going to part with it until he ascertains its exact value.

WEDDING

BREAU-LAPORTE

The Church of the Immaculate Conception was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday morning at 8:15, when Yvette Laporte, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Laporte, was united in marriage to Raymond Breaux, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Breaux of Shediac. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Conway. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a rose colored costume of satin and lace, with picture hat of beige straw lace, and beige shoes and stockings. Her beautiful bouquet was composed of roses, forget-me-nots, and lilies of the valley. Going away, the bride wore a smart blue suit, black and white hat, and double red fox scarf. Mrs. P. H. Laporte was attractively gowned in a black and white ensemble, with ermine throw, and corsage bouquet of sweet peas and roses. Mrs. William Breaux, mother of the groom, wore a beautiful gown of black flat crepe, and carried an arm bouquet of roses and forget-me-nots. The wedding breakfast, at the home of the bride's parents, was served to about fifty guests. Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding, were Mr. and Mrs. William Breaux of Shediac, Dr. and Mrs. Laporte of Clair, Dr. and Mrs. Albert, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Albert, and Marcel Albert, all of Van Buren, and Frank Corbin of Fredericton. Immediately after the wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Breaux left on a motor trip to Quebec and Montreal, and on their return will visit Halifax and Shediac. Both the young people have a wide circle of friends, who wish them the greatest happiness in their life together.

COLLEGE STE-ANNE DE LA POCATIERE

Vendredi, le 8 mai, soirée musicale donnée à MM. les professeurs et les élèves du collège et de l'École d'Agriculture par les membres de la fanfare et quelques élèves de musique. On remarqua au piano MM. C. Côté, R. Lozier, C. H. Dubé, R. Belle, J. St-Japton, E. Moreau, E. Lambert, A. Darisse et G. A. Martin. M. l'abbé A. Rousseau, violoniste jouèrent "Un Jour Parfait" de Bond; M. C. A. Martin les accompagna au piano. M. F. Bernier chanta "Les Vieilles de Chez-Nous", poésie de J. Laforque et musique de S. Levadé. M. C. Tardif l'accompagna au piano. Le grand chœur chanta "La Cigale et la Fourmi" de G. Gounod. La fanfare qui avait commencé le concert avec la Sérénade de G. Piliere, le termina par la Danse de J. Bouché.

Dimanche le 10 mai, archiconfrérie prêchée par l'abbé Chs. Frève. Le Jour de l'Ascension, M. l'abbé J. Verreault, sermon.

Dimanche le 17 mai, M. l'abbé R. Côté chanta la messe. Mgr. Plante, en tournée pastorale, dîna au collège. M. P. Polvin prêcha l'archiconfrérie.

Lundi le 18 mai, grand concours intercollégial: voici les sujets traités par les différentes classes du cours classique: Physique, dissertation "La loi rendue en un triomphe de raison, d'autorité et de bien commun", Philosophie Jr. "Le verté réside dans le jugement et non dans la simple appréhension. Rhétorique, thème latin: Belles-Lettres: Version latine et une version grecque en versification.

Mercredi, le 20 mai, l'abbé J. Campana ancien évêque ordonné à Québec le Jour de l'Ascension, célébra la messe de communauté. A sept heures et demie du soir, ouverture de la séance publique de la fête du générique.

Son Ex. Mgr. Plante assista à la séance avec plusieurs membres du clergé. Un public assez nombreux était venu des quatre coins de la province pour la fête du Madawaska, on remarqua MM. les abbés C. Cyr, A. Martin, E. Michaud et A. Godbout, M. D. Martin, vint voir ses deux fils élèves du collège depuis l'automne dernier. M. Hervé Labrie, élève du collège en repos depuis les dernières vacances, vint passer la fête avec son frère Aimard, étudiant en versification.

Jeudi, le 29 mai, les finissants font la promenade traditionnelle au Quai de la Rivière-Ouelle. M. l'abbé J. Diamant célébra la messe à cinq heures et quart. Les trente-huit finissants étaient présents. MM. L. P. Roy, G. McKenzie et A. Dufresne chantèrent quelques cantiques. On déjeuna immédiatement après la messe pour partir ensuite et être tous réunis à huit heures sur le quai de la Rivière-Ouelle. Pendant que les 12 machines qui nous avaient transportés s'en retournaient, les promeneurs se dispersèrent. Les uns trouvaient tout de suite ce qu'il leur fallait: un tennis. D'autres allèrent voir M. l'abbé Martin, ancien curé de Ste-Anne en retraite à St-Denis. Celui-ci mit son canon à la disposition des étudiants pour la journée. Cependant le ciel qui était nuageux depuis le matin se débarrassa de son apparence pluvieuse et le beau temps revint pour toute la journée.

Vers onze heures et demie, on se rend de l'autre côté de la rue pour le dîner. A deux heures nous étions tous réunis aux pieds de la Madone. C'est là que chacun, à genoux, signe le ruban révélateur pendant que les confrères chantent un cantique. Quelle cérémonie inoubliable que celle-ci! On s'amuse bien jusqu'au souper présidé par Mgr le Supérieur. Après le souper on prend quelques photographies-souvenir et le départ a lieu vers sept heures moins quart.

Une tradition abandonnée depuis que lapromenade se fait en automobile a été reprise cette année et

It is no wonder the buccannery loved to rove the Spanish Main. Something more than pieces of eight must have intrigued them; surely they were men of taste in spite of their bad habits! Today pirates and privateers spend their hours with Davy Jones and there is no more violence worrying the isles of the West Indies. But the true treasure is still there, for the world to enjoy. The Canadian National Steamships are making preparations to lay the beauties of the West Indies open to treasure hunters and many travellers have already made arrangements to go to Bermuda or Jamaica or all the way down to Demerara. The photographs show one of the beautiful Canadian National steamers, the Lady Somers, at Jamaica, and two typical scenes which are enough to make anyone's mouth water, the cocconut carrier, and the bananas going aboard the Lady Rodney at Kingston.
